

Candidate Ernestine Frazier

✓ Box 335 Sweetwater Tex.

Special Field Nutrition

Nutritionist, Department of Health, Texas
Austin, Texas

Plan of Work

A study of the dietaries of pellagrous families in the Mississippi delta.

Seeks Ph.D. at the University of Chicago, beginning October, 1938 for one year. The study as outlined will be mainly field work. Has been admitted. Can return to present position.

Digest of Application

Born April, 1903, Greenville, Texas. Single.

B.S. from Mississippi State College for Women, 1926. M.S. from Iowa State College, 1931. Attended University of Chicago October, 1933 to February, 1938.

Research Assistant, Mississippi State College, Mississippi, 1926-30, $1200-$1650. Nutrition Consultant, Mississippi State Board of Public Welfare, 1933-35, $1800. Laboratory Assistant, University of Chicago, March, 1936 to October, 1936, $25 month. Chemistry Professor, St. Xavier College, Chicago, Illinois, Fall quarter 1936, $160 month. Nutritionist, Texas Department of Health, 1938, $2400.

Research Fellowship, Iowa State College, two years, $540. Research Assistant, Department of Obs. University of Chicago, eleven months, $65 month.

Publications: See next page

References

- Dr. Lydia J. Roberts, Chairman, Department Home Economics, University Chicago
- Dr. Margaret H. Brooks, Assoc. Prof. Home Econ., "
- Dr. Pearl Swanson, Assoc. Prof. Home Econ. Iowa State College
- Dr. Dorothy Dickins, Head, Dept. Home Econ. State College
- Dr. Felix Underwood, Chair, State Bd Health - Miss.

Budget Summary

Total amount needed	$1699.28
From applicant	_____
From Fund	$1700.00
Granted

Committee Notes

Documents submitted

- Photograph x
- Exhibit material
- Transcripts x
- Miss. State College
- Iowa State College
- Plan of work x

Digest Complete

Sent to Committee

Documents returned

Publications

1. The Effect of Feeding Sorghum and Sugar-cane Syrups on Nutritional Anemia - Sheets, Olive and Frazier, Ernestine. Jour. of Home Economics, 23, 353-59 (1931)
2. Conservation of Iron in Vegetables by Methods of Preparation and Cooking - Sheets, Olive; Frazier, Ernestine; and Dickins, Dorothy. Bulletin No. 291, Miss. Agri. Exp. Station, May, 1931
3. Some Observations on the Physiological Adjustment of the Albino Rat to a Diet Poor in Salts When Edestin Is the Source of Dietary Protein - Swanson, P. P.; Timson, G. H.; and Frazier, Ernestine. F. Jour. Biol. Chem., 109, 723-37 (1935)
4. The Effect of Adequate School Lunches upon the Physical Growth of Mississippi School Children - Frazier, Ernestine, 1935, manuscript (in press).