Dear George:

You asked me the other day about honoraria for the art jury and I advised against. But I do think you should send an honorarium to Herschell Brickell. He just can't afford to take time out from his free-lancing unless he gets compensation. He would like to but I never let him myself.

Sincerely yours,

Henry Allen Moe

Dear George:

Many thanks for your letter.

The job the Jury does for the Rosenwald Fund is not arduous and I think you had better not pay an honorium. But please do write each a note. This year's jury (and last year's) consisted of

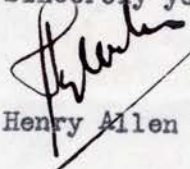

Peppino Mangravite, 224 East 49 Street, New York City
Frank Mechau, 150 West 95 Street, New York City
Oronzio Maldarelli, 8 West 13St Street, New York City

And a darn fine jury it is!

The Sensabaugh and Watson cases don't really come within the scope of the Coordinator's funds as they are being used by me and my associates. I have so advised Mr. Rockefeller and I strongly urge you to let their Rosenwald grants stand.

Sure thing! I'd like to see you in Washington and you have a standing invitation to visit me here.

Sincerely yours,

Henry Allen Moe

P. S. I return the Sensabaugh and Watson applications which Mr. Rockefeller sent me.
