Dear Mr. Beck: We are preparing a full report for our trustees on persons who have held fellowships, and would like to have up-to-date information. It will be of great service to us if you will give the information called for below, and return the sheet to us at once. In addition to these bare facts we should be glad to know of anything interesting that has happened to you, or that you have accomplished either during your tenure of fellowship or since your return to your post. Our trustees have a continuing interest in the Fellows and we like to keep them informed.

GMR:MLU

Very truly yours,

George M. Reynolds

Present address: 1237 Clifton Road, Emory University, Ga.

Institutional connection: Emory University

Rank or title: Instructor in Philosophy

Publications since you were awarded the fellowship. Please give publisher.
"The Synoptic Method", an article in Journal of Philosophy, June 22, 1939.
Review of Heuss, Rationale Biologie und Ihre Kritik in Philosophical Review, July 1939.
The article, "German Racial Ethics", which is the report on the research I did while holding the Fellowship, has been accepted by The Journal of Social Philosophy but has not yet appeared. Two more book reviews in The Philosophical Review (of Dingler's Die Methode der Physik and Rein's Schellings Kategorienlehre) will appear
Additional information: shortly.

I married on September 5, 1939.

At present I am attempting to work out either a series of articles or a short book on certain philosophical aspects of the propaganda problem, especially the influence of propaganda on "philosophy of life." This project is now too new to allow of a more detailed statement of my purposes; needless to say the inspiration for this study too came from my experiences in Germany under the Fellowship.

Yours sincerely,

Lewis White Beck
