

SUPPLEMENT TO NEGRO FELLOWSHIP SECTION

Since the data contained in the section on Negro Fellowships were compiled, information has been received concerning seventeen of the twenty-two listed as not replying to our former inquiries. This information appears below in the order followed in Exhibit B.

Name	Page No.	Amount	Present Position	Comment
Bertha C. Andrews	6	$1,000.00	Student, Hampton Institute	Continuing her studies.
Mrs. T. C. Taylor	7	417.44	Comptroller, Bennett College	Improved her work.
Eloise V. Fairley	8	1,500.00	Social worker, New York City	Received degree.
M. Kathryn Anthony	9	1,000.00	Substitute teacher of home economics, Washington, D.C.	Received B. S. degree.
Laura M. Averitte	9	250.00	Instructor in speech and education, Tennessee A. & I. College	Received M. A. degree.
Harriet A. Harris	9	1,000.00	Housewife
Rufus S. Watson	11	900.00	Attorney, Philadelphia	Received degree.
Charlotte W. Lytle	14	700.00	Librarian, Second Ward H.S., Charlotte, N. C.	Enabled her to render more efficient service.
Margaret Reynolds	14	3,300.00	Librarian, Survey of Training & Employment of White Collar & Skilled Negro Workers, New York City	Improved work.
Anna M. Cooke	19	1,060.00	Director of dramatics, Spelman College	Enriched my teaching.
Alma S. Hubbard	20	1,000.00	Occasional radio and concert work	Received valuable training.
Ertha E. Jack	21	277.69	Private nurse	Improved work.
Della Prioleau	23	300.00	Intake interviewer, Home Relief Bureau, New York	Secured position.
James H. Robinson	24	325.00	Professor of sociology & director, dept. of social administration, Wilberforce University	Better position.

Name	Page No.	Amount	Present Position	Comment
Walter Clark Wills	24	$ 190.50	Mail carrier, Kansas City
Frederick J. Lacy	25	1,300.00	Ass't Prof. Trade & Mechanical Education, W. Virginia State College	Better position.
Wesley Myers	27	1,100.00	Agricultural extension agent, Brunswick, Georgia	Larger insight into farmers' problems.

- - - - -

Of the 372 fellows on whom $389,708 was expended during the period of this review, we have been unable to secure data on five (1 1/3%) to whom $2,290 (less than 1% of the total) was given. These five, listed in the order in which they appear in Exhibit B, are:

Name	Page No.	Amount
Alice E. Reid	10	$600.00
Thomas H. Shaw, Jr.	12	40.00
George Garner	20	150.00
Naomi A. Jackson	20	500.00
William Hogan	29	1,000.00