

Fellowships
Comm.

March 16, 1948

Dear Mr. Lawrence: It has just come to my attention that American Airlines has substituted DC-6 Flagships for the lights for which I had purchased your tickets. The schedule remains the same; however, you will need to purchase an extra fare round trip ticket in addition to the one I sent you. You can do this when you get to the airport, and we will reimburse you together with your other expenses.

I believe I have already told you that a reservation has been made for you at the Stevens Hotel.

Looking forward to seeing you at 9:30 a.m.
on the 31st,

Sincerely yours,

For the Committee on Fellowships
