

Name Bernard C. Murdock Field: Education

Graduate Student
Duke University, Durham, North Carolina
Box 363, College Station, Duke University

Plan of Work

I hope this study will reveal the future paths over which progress in education in the South can and should be made. This will be done by getting the attitudes of all classes of people in North Carolina on various question areas in educational philosophy. Questionnaires and interviews will be used to get the opinions of people of all statuses.

Wishes to secure Ph.D., working under Dr. Douglas E. Scates of the Department of Education, Duke University. Probable duration of study twelve months, beginning July, 1941. Seeks administrative or supervisory work in public schools or college teaching.

Personal Data Born Greensboro, North Carolina, December, 1917. Age: 23
Single. Mother partially dependent.

Undergraduate Work Appalachian State Teachers College, Boone, N. C., B. S., 1938.

Graduate Work University of Cincinnati, M. Ed., 1939.
Duke University, September, 1940 -

Experience Critic teacher, Appalachian State Demonstration School,
Boone, North Carolina, June-September, 1938, $225; teacher,
Lexington High School, North Carolina, 1939-40, $896.

Accomplishments Master's thesis: Sex Differences in Mathematical Achievement in High School.

Fellowship: University of Cincinnati, 1938-39, tuition; Duke University, 1940-41, $400.

References

Douglas E. Scates, Duke University, Durham, North Carolina
Holland Holton, Duke University, Durham
Zed E. Burns, Appalachian State Teachers College, Boone, N. C.
J. D. Rankin, Dean, Appalachian State Teachers College
Carter V. Good, University of Cincinnati

Budget Summary

Total Amount Needed	1405 - 1595
From Applicant	50 *
From Fund	1400 - 1600

*less if I go to summer school

AMOUNT GRANTED

Sent to Committee

out
UNIVERSITY

B13 2/19