March 8, 1948

Dear Miss Bowman: The annual audition of candidates for Julius Rosenwald Fund fellowships in the field of Piano will be held Saturday afternoon, March 20, in the studio of Mr. Alton Jones at the Juilliard School of Music, 130 Claremont Avenue, New York City.

Candidates should have two or three selections prepared, preferably representing the classical, romantic and modern composers. Naturally, it is important that candidates appear at this audition, if it is at all possible. Will you please let me know by return mail if you can be at Mr. Jones' studio at 4:00 p.m. on the 20th?

Sincerely yours,

For the Committee on Fellowships
