

Candidate Frank James Gordon ✓ Special Field Genetics

Head, Poultry and Piggery Divisions
A. and T. College, Greensboro, North Carolina

Plan of Work

The crossing of different shank and beak colored Barred Rock fowls to obtain data to be used in investigating the inheritance of this characteristic.

Seeking Ph. D. from Ohio State University; admitted. Duration of study one year to begin October, 1938. Will return to present position.

Digest of Application

Born November, 1902, Gallipolis, Ohio. Married.

B. S. A. from Ohio State University, 1930. M. S. from Ohio State University, 1933. Graduate work at Ohio State, 1933-34.

Experiences: West Virginia State College, instructor, 1930-31, $1,500; Soviet Russia, research, 1931-32, 5,000 rubles; Tuskegee Institute, head, poultry division, 1933-34, $1,800; Tennessee State College, professor of agriculture, 1934-35, $1,500; A. and T. College, Greensboro, head, poultry division, 1935 to present, $1,900.

Research: M. S. thesis, Occurrence of an Encapsulated Bacillus (Friedlanders) in Poultry.

Publications: Preserving Amphibians in Gelatin, Science, November, 1934.

References

- Dr. A. R. Winter, Ohio State University.
- Dr. L. N. Snyder, Ohio State University.
- Dr. F. A. Starin, Ohio State University.

Budget Summary

Total amount needed	$1,832
From applicant	400
From Fund	$1,432

Committee Notes

out amateurish statement.

Granted

Documents submitted

- Photograph x
- Exhibit material
- Transcripts

Ohio State University

Plan of work x

Digest

Complete

Documents returned