

Candidate Joseph Livingston Whiting

Special Field Education & Psychology

Instructor, Psychology and Education
Morehouse and Spelman Colleges, Atlanta, Georgia

Plan of Work

An experimental study of learning aptitude upon Negro rural and urban children as an aid for better and more complete diagnosis of learning ability.

Seeks Ph.D. at Columbia University. Has been admitted. Wishes to begin field work at once (six months) and twelve months (institution). Can return to present position.

Digest of Application

Born February, 1887, Charles City County, Virginia. Married.

A.B. from University of Pennsylvania, 1908. M.A. from Columbia University, 1929. Attended Ohio State University, summer, 1927; Columbia University, summer, 1929.

Teacher, Tuskegee Institute, Alabama, 1907-1929, $2000. Teacher, Morehouse & Spelman Colleges, Atlanta, Georgia, 1930- , $2800.

Research: The Study of Saint Helena Island (in cooperation with Dr. T. J. Wooster, Jr.)

Publications: Institute Ideals in Industrial Education (Opportunity); Rural Education: Problems in Practice Teaching (Bulletin); Student-In-structor Class Work in Lesson Planning (Bulletin), Department of Interior.

The Laura Spelman Fund, Columbia University, 1928-29, $2500 and Tuition Fees.

References

- Dr. Monroe H. Work Research Director, Tuskegee
- Dr. Florence M. Read, President, Spelman College
- Dr. Otis W. Caldwell, Atlanta University

Budget Summary

Total amount needed	$2810
From applicant	$ 500
From Fund	$2310

Committee Notes

Granted

Documents submitted

- Photograph x
- Exhibit material
- Transcripts x

University of Pennsylvania
Columbia University

- Plan of work x

Digest brief

Sent to Committee

Documents returned

