

Name Nathan Alvin Pitts Field: Sociology
 Instructor (on leave)
 Cardinal Gibbons Institute, Ridge, Maryland
 1005 East Catherine Street, Ann Arbor, Michigan

Plan of Work (1) To determine the social and economic effects of organized cooperatives on the living conditions of rural Negroes; (2) to study the possibility of organizing cooperatives in St. Mary's County, Maryland.

Seeks Ph.D. at University of Wisconsin. Probable duration of study two years, beginning September, 1941. Will return to present position.

Personal Data Born Macon, Georgia, June, 1913. Married. Age: 28
 Two partial dependents.

Undergraduate Work Florida A & M College, 1931-34
 Xavier University, B. S., 1936; summers 1938 and 1939.

Graduate Work University of Michigan, summer, 1940.

Experience Instructor, Immaculata High School, Birmingham, 1937 -38, $500; instructor, Cardinal Gibbons Institute, 1938 - , $1000.

Accomplishments

References

Horace B. McKenna, Ridge, Maryland
 Clark Tibbitts, University of Michigan
 Dora Maxwell, Brooklyn, New York
 Percy S. Brown, Boston, Massachusetts
 Willard W. Allen, Baltimore, Maryland
 A. W. Wood, University of Michigan
 Howard Becker, University of Wisconsin

Budget Summary

Total Amount Needed	$ 1,700
From Applicant	- - -
From Fund	$ 1,700

Sent to Committee

AMOUNT GRANTED