

Candidate

Byron K. Armstrong ✓

Special Field

Education and Sociology

Professor of Education, Langston University
Box 406 Guthrie, Oklahoma

Plan of Work

To study agriculture, industry and business (particularly small shops and stores) and vocational training in various European countries, for the purpose of applying new methods in the education of the Negro. Ten months.

Is candidate for Ph. D. at Michigan in 1937 or 1938, having passed all requirements and written thesis. Can return to present position at Langston.

Digest of Application

Born 1892 Westfield, Indiana. One daughter.

Obtained A.B. in 1913 from Indiana University; A.M. 1914 from Columbia; has attended Columbia for five summers, New York University one summer, and the University of Michigan 1932-33, where he is candidate for Ph. D.

Has taught at following places: A and M College, Tallahassee, Florida, 1914-16, $800; Indianapolis public schools, 1916-17, $750; Langston University, 1921-37, $2,000 - $1,710. 1918-19 special Agent U. S. Department of Labor $1,800.

Holder of the Laurel Wreath of the Kappa Alpha Psi. Made special research for U. S. Investigation and Inspection Service. Two years of work in New York, Washington, St. Louis, Chicago, Hampton, Virginia, on his dissertation.

Publications: The Negro at Work During the War. Thesis: Factors in the Formulation of Collegiate Programs for Negroes.

References

Budget Summary

- ✓ Dr. Clifford Woody, Chairman of Graduate Study, U of Mich. Total amount needed $ 2,500
- ✓ Dr. George Myers, Prof. Vocational Education, U of Mich. From applicant —
- ✓ Mrs. Sabina Conrad, Recorder, U of Michigan. From Fund $ 2,500

Committee Notes

Granted

Out

Documents submitted

- Photograph x
- Exhibit material key 11/23/31 Heard's rec'd 10/6/31
- Transcripts x
- University of Michigan

Plan of work x

Digest ✓ Completed

Sent to Committee JAN 14 1938

Documents returned

