

Fellowship Com.

April 16, 1946

Dear Mr. Thompson: Thank you for your letter of April 2 which was waiting for me when I returned from New York. It was a relief when Miss Burge walked into the Juilliard School for her audition, and I am grateful to you for getting the information to her. The package of application papers arrived safely.

I'm sorry about the conflict of dates and wish we had known in time, but I'm glad to know that you will be with us anyhow.

Sincerely yours,

WCH:EN
