Absolutely top man.

I rated him high but guess but wanted to wait until he had tested himself against the completion of a large university. This he has done with brilliant success.

I met him at Talladega 1/2 year ago. He was top man in his class

Jolly as young

I saw this chap who was graduating from Talleyafer last June. He was the all around top of the Senior class

I'm inclined to join Gallagher's high praise of his absolute promise -

While we could easily wait - a year or so, I'd just as lieve make an award right now

An excellent man But professors do not seem to go all out for him we gave him a gift - 1940 and passed him over - 1941 I see no reason why we should give him an extra
