

EUGENE FELDMAN

Student, University of Wisconsin

Journalism

A northerner by birth and raising though he appears to plan definitely on living & working - the South no evidence of anything outstanding Does he expect to give full time to this project - or just squeeze it in amid general newspaper work. Mighty good topic: history of a sign reconstruction <sup>congressman</sup> Hubert Soule Beach shows cause of the contrary I see no award here

[Seems a project rather than a plan]
+ personal development

1948

Name Eugene Feldman

Field: Journalism

Student, University of Wisconsin
313 North Mills Street, Madison, Wisconsin

Plan of Work To write a biography of James T. Rapier, campaigner for civil rights and Negro congressman from Alabama in 1873-75. The biography will be written as a magazine or newspaper article - its length may require a series of articles. Would also write of his political times - if time allows this.

Requests grant for one year beginning July 1, 1948.

Personal Data Born Sheboygan, Wisconsin, September 1915
Single

Age: 32
Draft Status:

Undergraduate Work University of Wisconsin, 1933-34, 1946

Graduate Work

Experience News reporter, Savannah Morning News, Ga., 1941-42, $65 mo.;
" " , Montgomery Advertiser, Ala., 1946, $160 mo.;
Feature writer, Montgomery Examiner, 1947, 10¢ a column inch;
wrote feature stories, The African, New York, 1947.

Accomplishments Wrote a series of three articles on the reconstruction period of Alabama which will be published in The African.

References

J. T. Salter, University of Wisconsin
H. Westley Bruce, " " "
A. K. Nyabongo, New York City
Edward Weaver, Alabama State Teachers College
Lee White, Editor, Montgomery, Alabama

Budget Summary

|                     |        |
|---------------------|--------|
| Total Amount Needed | $1265 |
| From Applicant      | --     |
| From Fund           | $1265 |

AMOUNT GRANTED

Sent to Committee

