

1500 OK

Name Robert Paul RamseyField: PhilosophyGraduate Student, Yale University
312 Orange Street, New Haven, ConnecticutPlan of Work

1941-42 will be my final or dissertation year toward the doctorate at Yale University. I plan to make a study of "The Nature of Ethical and Social Obligation", surveying the field of historical philosophy and, among contemporary schools, philosophical value-theory or axiology, the "New Intuitionists" or Neo-Kantians, the Sociologists, and the Wissenssoziologie school.

Probable duration of work twelve months, beginning September, 1941. Will return to Millsaps College from which he is now on leave of absence.

Applied in 1938.

Personal Data

Born Mendenhall, Mississippi, December, 1913.
Married.

Age: 27Undergraduate Work

Millsaps College, B. S., 1935.

Yale Divinity School, B. D., 1940

Graduate Work

Yale Graduate School, 1940 -

Experience

Instructor in history and social science, Millsaps College, Jackson, Mississippi, 1937 - , $1332.

Best in this field

Accomplishments

Fellowships: Yale University, 1940-41, $300; National Council on Religion in Higher Education, 1940-41, $500.

References

Richard Niebuhr, Yale Divinity School
Luther A. Weigle, Yale Divinity School
Ross H. Moore, Millsaps College, Jackson, Mississippi
D. M. Key, 1421 Bush Boulevard, Birmingham
J. Lloyd Decell, P. O. Box #868, Birmingham
Marion Lofton Smith, President, Millsaps College

Budget Summary

Total Amount Needed	$ 1,600
From Applicant	100
From Fund	$ 1,500

AMOUNT GRANTED*Sent to Committee

F S K
UNIVERSITY