

Candidate Robert Nelson Page

Special Field

1417 Park Avenue, Richmond, Virginia
 Picture Editor, Richmond News Leader

Plan of Work

A three to six months study in parts of South America of treatment of race minorities with its particular bearing on the treatment of the Negro in our South, giving emphasis to vocational opportunities.

Will return to present position.

Digest of Application

University of Virginia, A. B., 1927. Married, two children.

Variety of experience; Richmond News Leader in circulation, advertising, and news department since 1934.

Has charge of Negro edition which News Leader publishes to enable Negroes of the city to have dignified and proper outlet for their news events and social activities.

References

Mark Ethridge, Louisville Courier Journal
 Douglas S. Freeman, Editor, Richmond News Leader
 Henry Field, Field Museum
 Charles Scribner, New York
 Tennant Bryan, General Manager, News Leader

Budget Summary

Total amount needed	$1,500
From applicant	-
From Fund	$1,500

Committee Notes

Granted

Documents submitted
 Photograph
 Exhibit material
 Transcripts

Plan of work

Digest

Sent to Committee

Documents returned

