

Mr. Jeffries began work at Columbia University, but when advisers realized he had no residual hearing they decided he better not continue his work there. Mr. Jeffries was given opportunity to try to locate himself elsewhere, but he failed to do so and in April, 1942, the grant was released. MLU Aug. 11, 1942

Name Solomon Cornelius Jeffries
Institute, West Virginia
West Virginia State College

Field: Education
SCHOLARSHIP AID

Plan of Work

I propose to attend Columbia University, to follow courses in the education of the deaf leading to a master's degree. I desire to study during the school year 1941-42.

Did not use

Personal Data Born Irondale, Alabama, October, 1916.

Age: 24

Undergraduate Work West Virginia State College, 1937-41.

Graduate Work

Experience

Accomplishments

References

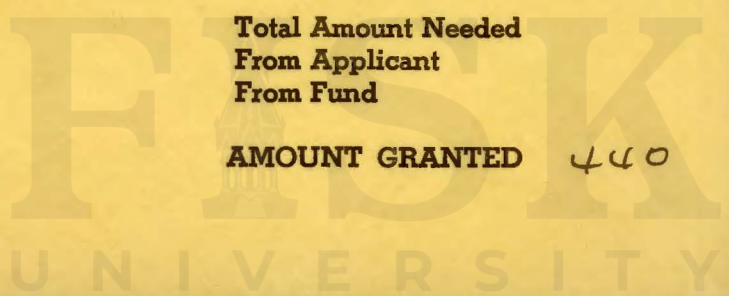

- E. A. Bolling, Superintendent, West Virginia School for Deaf and Blind, Institute
- F. J. Lacy, Assistant Professor of Mechanic Arts
- L. L. McKenzie, Professor of History and Political Science

Budget Summary

Total Amount Needed
From Applicant
From Fund

Sent to Committee

AMOUNT GRANTED 440

SOLOMON C. JEFFREIES

Entered Columbia University fall of 1941.

Withdrawn Oct 15, 1941.

FISK
UNIVERSITY