

Fellows Trip Com.

February 24, 1943

Dear Mr. Mechau: I am enclosing the tickets for you, Mr. Mangravite and Mr. Maldarelli. I have arranged with Newcomb-Macklin to hold the judging Friday afternoon, March 5. When you gentlemen arrive at the Palmer House, please telephone me at Drexel 7-100.

Julien Binford is applying to us this year and also to the Guggenheim Foundation. A problem has arisen in connection with this application on which I would like to get your advice. The Guggenheim judging will be on March 2, and this would hardly leave time to get the exhibit to us on the 5th. I am wondering if you and Mr. Mangravite have seen enough of Binford's work to judge without an exhibit. I am sure that Mr. Moe would be willing to have you or Mr. Man-gravite see the paintings Binford has submitted to the Guggenheim jury, and this might be a way out of the dilemma if it were possible for either of you to take the time.

I am awfully glad that it is possible for you and Mr. Mangravite and Mr. Maldarelli to make this trip, and I hope we won't work you so hard that you won't have plenty of time to see your friends in Chicago.

Sincerely yours,

WCH:MLJ
