

Assistant Professor of History
Alabama Polytechnic Institute
Auburn, Alabama

History

Good man + good record
His chief professor
= Brinkley + Bosley don't jibe
So all out for him on his project

I don't see that more minute studies of Southern history add to the South that we want to advance

1941 DS
1943

Withdrawn because of Navy Commission-

Name Weymouth Tyree Jordan

Field: History

Assistant Professor of History
Alabama Polytechnic Institute
Auburn, Alabama

Plan of Work

Research on social and cultural developments in Mobile, particularly concerning education, religion, medicine, literature, the theatre, dress, customs, fashions, population and physical developments of the city.

Wishes to do research to be conducted in leading depositories in the South and in the Library of Congress, beginning in summer, 1943 through academic year, 1943-44. Will return to present position.

Personal Data Born Hamlet, North Carolina, October, 1912.
Married. Two children.

Age: 30
Draft: 3A

Undergraduate Work North Carolina State College, B. S., 1933.

Graduate Work Vanderbilt University, M. A., 1934, Ph. D., 1937.

Experience Professor, Indian Normal College, Pembroke, North Carolina, 1937-38, $1400; instructor, Judson College, Marion, Alabama, 1938-39, $1750; assistant professor, Judson College, 1939-40, $1800, associate professor, Judson College, 1941-42, $2100; assistant professor, Alabama Polytechnic Institute, Auburn, Alabama, 1942 to present, $2400.

Accomplishments Articles on southern history in The Journal of Mississippi History, The Alabama Historical Quarterly, The Journal of Southern History, Tennessee Historical Magazine and North Carolina Historical Review.

Four small graduate scholarships, Vanderbilt University.

Two Social Science Research Council, Southern Grants-in-Aid.

References

- Dr. W. C. Binkley, Vanderbilt University
- Dr. F. L. Owsley, Vanderbilt University
- Dr. A. W. Reynolds, Alabama Polytechnic Institute
- Mrs. Marie B. Owen, State Department, Alabama
- Dr. Hugh T. Lefler, University of North Carolina

Budget Summary

Total Amount Needed	$1800
From Applicant	-
From Fund	$1800

Sent to Committee

