My dear Mr. Bonsfield,

I regret very much that I am unable to accept your offer at this time. The mere fact that you have considered me worthy of carrying on this great work has made it difficult for me to make this decision. As I intimated in our conversation, my inability to accept your offer is due to the illness of my wife, and to leave for a long period would seem to break down the progress which she has made during the past two months.

I thank you for the offer, and hope that you will bear me in mind for some work at a later date.

Respectfully yours,
Eugene W. Campbell M.D.
