

Lists

JULIUS ROSENWALD FUND
NEGRO FELLOWS - 1937

PERCY H. BAKER (31), instructor in biology and elementary school science, Virginia State College for Negroes: appointed for study of biology and the preparation of school texts in science, at the University of Michigan. Born April 17, 1906, Williamsburg, Virginia. Married, two children. Education: University of Pittsburgh, B. S., 1929; M. S., 1930. Held Graduate Council Scholarship, University of Pittsburgh, 1929. Instructor in biology, North Carolina College for Negroes, 1930-34; instructor in biology and elementary school science, Virginia State College for Negroes, Ettrick, Virginia, 1934-.

OTIS HOLLEY BERRY (29), appointed for study of voice at the Fontainebleau School of Music, France. Born April 12, 1908, Talladega, Alabama. Married. Education: A and I State College, Nashville, Tennessee, University of Northern California, Coleridge-Taylor Music School, Chicago, Chadek Conservatory, Chattanooga, Tennessee, Neighbor Music School and Hartley House Music School, New York, Seagle Music Colony, Fontainebleau School of Music, and A. Ira Aldridge Studio in London. Held Hartley House Scholarship, 1932, and Julius Rosenwald Fund fellowship, 1936, both for foreign study.

ULYSSES S. BROOKS (44), instructor in chemistry and physics, Johnson C. Smith University: appointed for chemical research in the ionization of salts, at the University of Chicago. Born April 6, 1894, Jamesville, North Carolina. Married, two children. Education: Howard University, B. S., 1924; University of Chicago, M. S., 1931. LaVerne Noyes scholarships at University of Chicago. Teacher of science in high school department of the State Normal School, Elizabeth City, North Carolina, 1924-27; instructor in chemistry, Texas College, Tyler, Texas, 1927-31; instructor in chemistry and physics, Johnson C. Smith University, Charlotte, North Carolina, 1931-.

HENRY R. BUTLER, Jr., M. D., (37), physician, Atlanta, Georgia: appointed for study in internal medicine and diagnosis at London Hospital and Medical College, England. Born November 1, 1899, Atlanta. Education: Atlanta University, A. B., 1922; Harvard Medical School, M. D., 1926; National Board of Medical Examiners, D. N. B. certificate, 1936. Held Hayden scholarship at Harvard, 1923. In addition to private practice has been physician at the Well Baby Clinic, Transient Bureau, and Child Welfare Association of Fulton and DeKalb Counties.

DAVID W. CANNON, Jr. (27), graduate student, Columbia University: appointed for studies in education at Teachers College. Born April 18, 1910, New Jersey. Education: Hillsdale College, Hillsdale, Michigan, B. S., 1931; University of Michigan, M. A., 1932; Columbia University, 1936-37. Held State College fellowship to University of Michigan, 1931, Charles Foster Kent and American Missionary Association fellowships for study at Columbia, 1936. Assistant professor of psychology, Virginia State College, Ettrick, Virginia; state supervisor of adult education, W. P. A., Virginia State College.

RICHARD ALLEN CARROLL (24), instructor in English, Arkansas State College: appointed for studies in English literature at the University of Michigan. Born July 27, 1913, Valliant, Oklahoma. Education: Johnson C. Smith University, A. B., 1934; University of Michigan, M. A., 1936. Instructor in English, Mary Potter High School, Oxford, North Carolina, 1934-35, and at Arkansas State College, Pine Bluff, 1936-.

HORACE R. CAYTON (33), research assistant in sociology, University of Chicago: appointed for studies in sociology and statistics at the University of Chicago. Born November 12, 1903, Seattle, Washington. Married. Education: University of Washington, B. B. Ad., 1931; University of Chicago, 1931-34. Member Zeta Phi, Alpha Kappa Delta. Assistant to principal, Tuskegee Institute, Alabama; special assistant, U. S. Department of the Interior; instructor at Fisk University; research assistant, University of Chicago for several years. Assisted Dr. Harold Gosnell with The Negro Politician in Chicago; collaborated with Dr. George Mitchell in study, "The Negro in Trade Unions." Has contributed to the Nation and reviewed books for American Journal of Sociology.

SCHIEFFELIN CLAYTOR (29), assistant professor of mathematics, West Virginia State College: appointed for research in theoretical mathematics at the University of Michigan. Born 1908, Virginia. Education: Howard University, B. S., 1929, M. S., 1930; University of Pennsylvania, Ph. D., 1933; University of Michigan, 1936-. Publications: Topological Immersion of Peanian Continua in a Spherical Surface, Annals of Mathematics, October, 1934; Peanian Continua Not Imbeddable in a Spherical Surface, Annals of Mathematics, Series II, 1937.

WILL MERCER COOK (34), professor of French, and chairman of the department, Atlanta University: appointed for study of the Negro in French literature, in Paris and the French colonies. Born March 30, 1903, Washington, D. C. Married, one child. Education: Amherst College, A. B., 1925; Brown University, M. A., 1931; University of Paris, 1925-26, and 1934-35. Phi Beta Kappa. Held Simpson fellowship from Amherst College to the University of Paris, 1925; University Junior fellowship at Brown University and Julius Rosenwald Fund grant, 1930; General Education Board fellowship, 1934. Publications: Le Noir (American Book Company, 1934). Articles and book reviews in Opportunity, Crisis, and Journal of Negro History. Editor of Atlanta University French Series and of French text published by American Book Company.

FRANK MARSHALL DAVIS (31), author and journalist: appointed for creative writing, especially poetry. Born December 31, 1905, Arkansas City, Kansas. Married. Education: Kansas State College, 1924-27, 1929-30. Sigma Delta Chi scholarship Kansas State College, 1929. Reporter for the Chicago Whip; managing editor of the Gary American and the Atlanta Daily World; feature editor for the Associated Negro Press. Publications: Black Man's Verse (Black Cat Press, Chicago, September, 1935); I Am the American Negro (Black Cat Press, February, 1937). Has contributed poetry to Verse Craft, Fantasy, Crisis, New Challenge, Kansas Magazine, Arts Quarterly, Brown Bull, magazines; to the Parnassian, Quill Poems, 1929, and American Poetry Anthology of 1927, collections; prose to Crisis, Light, Writers Take Sides, Down Beat, and various newspapers.

WILLIAM HENRY DEAN (28), instructor in economics, Atlanta University: appointed for study of the economic factors in regional migration and the growth of cities, at Harvard University. Born July 6, 1910, Lynchburg, Virginia. Married. Education: Bowdoin College, A. B., summa cum laude, 1930; Harvard University, M. A., 1932, one semester, 1936. University Scholar, Harvard University, 1930; Henry Lee Memorial Fellow, Harvard, 1931. (Incumbent is secretary of the Economics Seminar.) Edward Austin Fellow, Harvard, 1932; General Education Board Fellow, one semester, 1936. Member of Phi Beta Kappa. Instructor in Economics, Atlanta University, Atlanta, Georgia.

AARON DOUGLAS (38), appointed for creative art in portraits, character sketches, and scenes of Negro life. Born May 26, 1899, Topeka, Kansas. Married. Education: University of Nebraska, B. F. A., 1922; Winold Reiss School of Fine Arts, New York, 1925 and 1926; Barnes Foundation, Merion, Pennsylvania, 1927-28; L'Academie Scandinave, Paris, France, 1931-32. Fellowship at Barnes Foundation. Exhibitions: Caz-Delbos Galleries, New York City, 1933; Morrill Memorial Hall, University of Nebraska, 1936.

J. G. ST. CLAIR DRAKE (26), research assistant in social anthropology and instructor, Dillard University: appointed for studies in social anthropology at the University of Chicago. Born January 2, 1911, Suffolk, Virginia. Education: Hampton Institute, B. S., 1931; Columbia University, summer of 1936; Pendle Hill School for Social and Religious Study, Wallingford, Pennsylvania, 1931. Held work-fellowship at Pendle Hill, devoting portion of time to Joint Committee on Race Relations of the Society of Friends; two grants from Rosenwald Fund made possible association with Allison Davis in analysis of anthropological field study at Dillard. Field worker for Joint Committee on Race Relations, Society of Friends; teacher at Christiansburg Industrial Institute, Cambria, Virginia, and at Virginia State College Extension Summer School, Cambria; research assistant, Dillard University.

S. RANDOLPH EDMONDS (37), professor of drama, Dillard University: appointed for creative work in folk drama at Malvern, England, and with the Irish Players. Born April 30, 1900, Lawrenceville, Virginia. Married, one child. Education: Oberlin College, A. B., 1926; Columbia University, A. M., 1931; Yale University, 1934-35. General Education Board Fellow, 1934. Publications: Shades and Shadows (Meador Publishing Company, Boston); Six Plays for a Negro Theatre (Walter H. Baker Company, Boston). Has written articles for Messenger, Crisis, Opportunity, Afro-American, Arts Quarterly, and several plays. Professor of English, Morgan College, and professor of drama, Dillard University, New Orleans.

JOHN H. FRANKLIN (22), instructor in history, Fisk University: appointed for research in recent social and intellectual history of America, at Harvard University. Born January 2, 1915, Rentiesville, Oklahoma. Education: Fisk University, A. B., 1935; Harvard University, A. M., 1936. Freshman and sophomore scholarships at Fisk University; National Alpha Phi Alpha scholarship, 1934. Member of Sigma Upsilon Pi. Research assistant, Commission on Minority Groups, and instructor in history at Fisk University, Nashville, Tennessee. Awarded Edward Austin fellowship by Harvard to run concurrently with Fund grant.

CARL M. HILL (30), science teacher, Hampton Institute: appointed for research in organic chemistry at Cornell University. Born July 27, 1907, Norfolk, Virginia. Married. Education: Hampton Institute, B. S., 1931; Cornell University, M. S., 1935. Member of Sigma Xi. General Education Board Fellow, 1934-35. Instructor of student teaching, Hampton Institute, Virginia, 1932-.

GILES A. HUBERT (30), assistant professor of economics and rural sociology, Fisk University: appointed for study of agriculture and farm organization in Denmark. Born June 21, 1907, Atlanta, Georgia. Married. Education: Jackson College, Mississippi, B. A., 1928; University of Iowa, M. A., 1930; University of Minnesota, 1930-31. Held Rosenwald Fund fellowships in 1930 for work at Minnesota, and in 1936 for European study trip. Instructor at Arkansas State College, Pine Bluff; professor of economics, Tennessee State College, Nashville, and at Jackson College, Mississippi; research associate and instructor, Fisk University; technical assistant, Re-settlement Administration; assistant professor, Fisk University. Publications: "Negro Population Trends in Arkansas," Arkansasyer, March, 1930; "Helping Themselves," Mountain Life and Work, July, 1933; "Cooperative Financing for Agriculture," Cooperative Marketing Journal, January, 1933; "After Emergency Credit," Southern Workman, 1933

CLINTON E. KNOX (32), instructor in history, Morgan College: appointed for study of European history with special reference to the Ottoman Empire, at Harvard University. Born May 5, 1905, New Bedford, Massachusetts. Married. Education: Williams College, A. B., 1930; Brown University, A. M., 1931; Harvard University, summer of 1930, and 1935-36. Held undergraduate scholarships at Williams College and graduate fellowship at Brown University; General Education Board fellowship, 1935. Instructor in history, Morgan College, Baltimore, 1931-. Publications: "The Possibilities of Compromise in the Senate Committee of Thirteen," Journal of Negro History, October, 1933.

HILDA LAWSON (23), appointed for study of English literature at the University of Illinois. Born September 22, 1914, Washington, D. C. Education: Miner Teachers College, B. S., 1934; Howard University, M. A., 1935; University of Iowa, 1935-36, University of Illinois, 1936-37. Held tuition scholarship at Howard University, 1934. Research assistant at University of Iowa and at University of Illinois.

JAMES R. LAWSON (22), teacher of physics and mathematics, St. Augustine's College: appointed for investigation in infra-red spectroscopy at the University of Michigan. Born January 15, 1915, Louisville, Kentucky. Education: Fisk University, B. S., 1935; University of Michigan, M. S., 1936, and summer session, 1936. Undergraduate scholarship, Fisk University. Laboratory assistant, Fisk University, and research assistant, University of Michigan. Teacher of physics and mathematics, St. Augustine's College, Raleigh, North Carolina.

BOOKER T. MCGRAW (39), teacher of economics, Lincoln University: appointed for study of economics at Harvard University. Born August 24, 1898, Brooks County, Georgia. Married. Education: Atlanta University, A. B., 1923; University of Michigan, M. A., 1924, M. B. A., 1926; Harvard University, A. M., 1933. General Education Board Fellow, 1931 and 1932. Professor of economics, Bishop College, Texas; registrar and teacher of economics, Lincoln University, Missouri.

MARY ADELAIDE MORTON (30), instructor in education, Howard University: appointed for study of psychological factors in the learning process, at the University of Chicago. Born February 4, 1907, Washington, D. C. Education: Howard University, B. S., 1928, A. M. 1933, M. S. 1934; University of Chicago, summer quarter, 1936. Held two graduate fellowships at Howard University. Member of Current Literature Staff of Journal of Negro Education.

BENJAMIN ARTHUR QUARLES (33), instructor in history, Shaw University: appointed for study of American history, specifically the life of Frederick Douglass, at the University of Wisconsin. Born January 23, 1904, Boston, Massachusetts. Married. Education: Shaw University, A. B., 1931; University of Wisconsin, A. M., 1933. Held Social Science Research Council junior fellowship, University of Wisconsin, 1931; Legislative scholarship, University of Wisconsin, 1932 and 1936. Instructor in history, Shaw University, Raleigh, North Carolina, 1934-.

FRANCES E. THOMPSON (35), teacher of art education, Tennessee Agricultural and Industrial State Teachers College: appointed for work in art and art education in Czechoslovakia. Born July 11, 1902, Nashville, Tennessee. Education: Massachusetts School of Art, diploma, 1923, B. S., 1936. Teacher of art education at Tennessee Agricultural and Industrial College, Nashville, for eleven years.

H. COUNCILL TRENHOLM (38), President, Alabama State Teachers College: appointed for study of educational administration, at the University of Chicago. Born July 16, 1900, Tuscumbia, Alabama. Married, two children. Education: Morehouse College, A. B., 1920; University of Chicago, Ph. B., 1921, A. M., 1925, and 1934-35. Held several undergraduate scholarships at Morehouse, and General Education Board fellowship, 1934. Instructor at Alabama State Normal School, and president, Alabama State Teachers College, Montgomery. Publications: A Yearbook on Negro Education in Alabama, 1930-31; 1936 Handbook of the Alabama State Teachers Association.

BONITA HARRISON VALIEN (25), research assistant in sociology, Atlanta University: appointed for study in sociology at the University of Wisconsin. Born May 2, 1912, Fort Worth, Texas. Married. Education: Prairie View State Normal and Industrial College, A. B., 1935; Atlanta University, M. A., 1936. Atlanta University scholarship, 1935. Instructor in stenography Washington Business Institute, New York, and Prairie View State College; research assistant, Atlanta University, Georgia.

PRESTON VALIEN (25), director of research of the federal project on the training and employment of white collar and skilled Negro workers; appointed for study in sociology at the University of Wisconsin. Born February 19, 1912, Beaumont, Texas. Married. Education: Prairie View State Normal and Industrial College, A. B., 1934; University of Wisconsin, M. Ph., 1935. Member of Alpha Kappa Delta. Held departmental scholarship in sociology, University of Wisconsin, 1934.

HARRY J. WALKER (32), instructor in sociology, Fisk University; appointed for sociological study of Durham, North Carolina, in collaboration with Lewis C. Copeland, under auspices of University of Chicago. Born June 7, 1905, Muncy, Pennsylvania. Married. Education: Bucknell University, 1924-25; Oberlin College, A. B., 1928; Fisk University, 1931-32, M. A., 1937. Graduate fellowship at Fisk University, 1931. Instructor in social sciences, Leland College, Baker, Louisiana; research assistant, department of social science, Fisk University. Field worker and research assistant in housing studies, study of tobacco workers, study of Negro college and professional graduates under auspices of Fisk University.

CHARLES E. WEIR (26), assistant in chemistry at Howard University; appointed for research in nuclear chemistry and quantum mechanics at California Institute of Technology. Born September 29, 1911, Washington, D. C. Married, one child. Education: University of Chicago, B. S., 1932; Howard University, M. S., 1934. Held three half-year tuition scholarships at University of Chicago, two fellowships at Howard.

HENRY S. WILSON (35), instructor in chemistry, Louisville Municipal College; appointed for chemical research in the plasticities of lime, at Indiana University. Born March 1, 1902. Married. Education: Indiana University, A. B., 1923; A. M., 1927, and summer sessions, 1933-36. Publications: "A New Method for the Qualitative Testing of Calcium," Journal of Chemical Education, Vol. 4, No. 11, November, 1927.

JULIUS ROSENWALD FUND
WHITE FELLOWS - 1937

LEWIS W. BECK (24), Fellow in philosophy at Duke University: appointed for study of comparative aspects of racial discrimination in the South and in Germany. Born September 26, 1913, Griffin, Georgia. Education: Emory University, A. B., with honors in philosophy, 1934; Duke University, A. M., 1935, Ph. D., 1937. Member of Phi Beta Kappa. Held fellowships in philosophy, Duke University, 1934 and 1936. Assistant in philosophy at Emory and at Duke Universities. Publications: "A Neglected Aspect of Butler's Ethics," accepted for publication in Sophia (Rome). Translations of two articles from the German by Professor W. Stern, published in the Personalist, summer of 1936, and summer and winter of 1937.

GOULD M. BEECH (24), associate editor of the Montgomery Advertiser, Montgomery, Alabama: appointed for study of sociology and economics at the University of North Carolina. Born May 5, 1913, Graceville, Florida. Married. Education: University of Alabama, A. B., 1934. Reporter for the Anniston Star, associate editor of Montgomery Advertiser. Publications: has written special articles for the Wall Street Journal, the Birmingham Age-Herald, and the Baltimore Evening Sun.

BENJAMIN ALBERT BOTKIN (36), assistant professor of English, University of Oklahoma: appointed for study of folk and regional movement in the South. Born February 7, 1901, Boston, Massachusetts. Married, one child. Education: Harvard College, A. B., magna cum laude, 1920; Columbia University, A. M., 1921; University of Nebraska, Ph. D., 1931. Held undergraduate scholarships at Harvard, graduate fellowships at Columbia, and faculty research grant, University of Oklahoma. Instructor in English, University of Oklahoma, 1921-23, 1925-30; assistant instructor in English, University of Nebraska, 1930-31; assistant professor of English, University of Oklahoma, 1931-. Publications: "The American Play-Party Song, with a Collection of Oklahoma Texts and Tunes," University Studies of the University of Nebraska, No. XXXVI; "Southern and Southwestern Folk and Folklore," published in part as Chapter 26 in Culture in the South, edited by W. T. Couch, University of North Carolina Press, 1934; "The Great American Wisecrack: A Study in Popular Speech and Humor," for a volume to be published by the University of Oklahoma Press and already published in part in American Speech; translation from the Armenian of poems of Lootfi Minas, published in part in the Stratford Journal and the Stratford Magazine. Poems, articles and reviews have appeared in American Mercury, Opportunity, Journal of Negro Life, Southwest Review, The Harp, New Masses, Magazine of Verse, Folk-Say, New Republic, Stratford Journal, Stratford Monthly, Bookman, American Speech, Windsor Quarterly, etc. Has edited Folk-Say, a Regional Miscellany, (University of Oklahoma Press, 1929, 1930, and 1931); The Southwest Scene - an Anthology of Regional Verse (Economy Company, Oklahoma City, 1931) and Folk-Say IV - The Land is Ours (University of Oklahoma Press, 1932).

HARRINGTON COOPER BREARLEY (43), professor of sociology and psychology, Clemson Agricultural College, South Carolina: appointed for study of the nature and sources of race conflict, at the University of London.

Born December 29, 1893, St. Charles, South Carolina. Married, two children. Education: University of South Carolina, A. B., 1916, A. M., 1917; University of North Carolina, Ph. D., 1928; special study at Syracuse and Columbia Universities, and at Institute of Race Relations at Swarthmore College. Held undergraduate scholarships at University of South Carolina and at Columbia University. Instructor at University of South Carolina and has taught in high schools in Atlanta, Georgia, Columbia, South Carolina, Durham, North Carolina; is at present professor of sociology and psychology at Clemson College, South Carolina. Publications: Homicide in the United States (University of North Carolina Press, 1932); contributor to Culture in the South (University of North Carolina Press, 1934). Contributing editor to Social Forces since 1932. Articles have appeared in Sociology and Social Research, Mental Hygiene, Social Science, School and Society, Law and Contemporary Problems, etc.

INA C. BROWN (41), appointed for study at the University of Chicago of the history of race attitudes of English-speaking peoples. Born May 27, 1896, Gatesville, Texas. Education: Southern Methodist University, 1919-21; University of Chicago, A. B., 1936. Publications: Choice of a Career (with Garfield Evans, Cokesbury Press, 1923); Training for World Friendship (Cokesbury Press, 1929); The Story of the American Negro (Friendship Press, 1936). Taught in Gatesville public schools and has done work with the General Board of Christian Education of the Methodist Church.

L. PARIS BROWN (30), member of Mississippi State Legislature; appointed for study of delinquency and crime, at the University of Chicago. Born March 30, 1907, Edinburg, Mississippi. Married. Education: Mississippi State Teachers College, A. B., 1937. Superintendent of schools in Conway and Center Counties, Mississippi.

HARMON W. CALDWELL (37), president of the University of Georgia; appointed for the study of institutions of higher learning in England. Born January 29, 1899, Meriwether County, Georgia. Education: University of Georgia, A. B., 1919; Harvard University Law School, LL. B., 1924. Held scholarship at Harvard, 1923. Assistant professor, Emory University Law School, professor and dean, University of Georgia Law School, and president of the University of Georgia, Athens.

JOHN TYLER CALDWELL (26), junior economist, Resettlement Administration, State College, Mississippi. Appointed for studies in public administration (especially in the field of taxation) at Princeton University. Born December 19, 1911, Yazoo City, Mississippi. Education: Mississippi State College, B. S., 1932; Duke University, M. A., 1936. Instructor in social sciences at Holmes Junior College, Goodman, Mississippi; research economist with Resettlement Administration, State College, Mississippi.

WIRT A. CATE (36), appointed for research in American history with special reference to Sherman's Atlanta campaign in the Civil War. Born November 16, 1900, Hopkinsville, Kentucky. Education: Emory University, B. A., 1923, M. A., 1925; Harvard University, 1926-27, 1928-29. Held University fellowship in English at Emory, 1924, and Edward Austin fellowship in English and comparative literature at Harvard, 1928. Instructor at Baylor School, Chattanooga, Tennessee, 1923-24, at Georgia School of Technology, 1925-26 and 1927-28. Since 1929 has been engaged in literary work. Publications: Lucius Q. C. Lamar, Secession and Reunion (University of North Carolina Press, 1935); "Lamar and the Frontier Hypothesis," The Journal of Southern History, Vol. 1, No. 4, November, 1935; "The Problem of the Origin of the Griselda Story," University of North Carolina Studies in Philology, July, 1932.

LEWIS C. COPELAND (28), appointed for study of influence of race on social structure of a southern community, at Duke University. Born February 10, 1909, Houston, Texas. Married. Education: Texas Christian University, A. B., 1931; University of Chicago, M. A., 1937. Research assistant under Social Science Research Committee at University of Chicago for several years; assistant director of W. P. A. Population Research Project, under guidance of Dr. Ernest W. Burgess of the University of Chicago, and research assistant for National Resources Board.

JAMES DOMBROWSKI (40), secretary of the Highlander Folk School, Monteagle, Tennessee: appointed for study of the influences of industrialization on a typical county of the Appalachian mountains. Born January 17, 1897. Education: Emory University, B. Ph., cum laude, 1923; Columbia University, Ph. D., 1936; Union Theological Seminary, B. D., magna cum laude, 1931. Special scholarship and prize scholarships at Union Theological Seminary; Fellow, National Council on Religion in Higher Education, Columbia University, for two years. Alumni Secretary, Emory University, 1923-26; educational director of Pacific Conference and student pastor, University of California; assistant, Department of Christian Ethics, Union Theological Seminary, part-time for two years. Publications: The Early Days of Christian Socialism in America (Columbia University Press, 1936). Articles in the Nation. Editor of the Alumni History of Emory University, 1926.

THOMAS P. GOVAN (30), Teaching Fellow, Vanderbilt University: appointed for historical study of the banking and credit systems of the ante-bellum South. Born January 9, 1907, Atlanta, Georgia. Education: Georgia School of Technology, B. S., 1928; Emory University, M. A., 1934; Vanderbilt University, 1935-37. University Fellow, Emory University; Teaching Fellow, history and political science, Vanderbilt University.

MARGARET JARMAN HAGOOD (29), appointed for studies in sociology and statistics at the University of North Carolina. Born October 26, 1907, Newton County, Georgia. Education: Chicora College, 1924-25, Agnes Scott College, 1925, Queens College, B. A., 1929; Emory University, M. A., 1930; University of North Carolina, Ph. D., 1937. Held scholarship at Emory University; special research assistantship, Institute for Research in Social Science, University of North Carolina, 1936-37. Taught mathematics and science at Druid Hills High School, Emory, Georgia, 1930-31, and at National Park Seminary, Maryland, 1931-35. Member of Alpha Kappa Delta, Alpha Psi Delta. Publications: Some Contributions of Psychology to Social Case Work.

JAMES GRAY MADDIX (30), agricultural economist, Resettlement Administration; appointed for study of agricultural economics, especially land tenure, at the University of London and in Denmark. Born February 4, 1907, Rison, Arkansas. Married, one child. Education: University of Arkansas, B. S. A., 1927; University of Wisconsin, 1929-31, 1932-33, M. S., 1930; George Washington University, 1934; U. S. Department of Agriculture Graduate School, 1936-. Member of Alpha Zeta, Alpha Kappa Delta. Research assistant, Department of Rural Economics and Sociology, University of Arkansas, and for the Department of Agricultural Economics, University of Wisconsin; agricultural economist for the Farm Credit and the Resettlement Administration. Publications: Arkansas Experiment Station Bulletin 274. University of Arkansas Bulletin of Public Service, October, 1931. "Farm Tenancy in the United States," Part VII of the Supplementary Report of the Land Planning Committee to the National Resources Board, 1935.

RALPH E. MCGILL (38), sports editor of the Atlanta Constitution; appointed for study of land tenure and minority groups in Ireland and on the continent, with special reference to the influence of the press. Born February 5, 1899. Married, one child. Education: Vanderbilt University, 1917-18, 1919-21.

ROBERT D. MEADE (34), associate professor of history, Randolph-Macon Woman's College: appointed for research in completing biography of Judah P. Benjamin. Born August 16, 1903, Danville, Virginia. Married. Education: Virginia Military Institute, B. A., 1924; University of Virginia, M. A., 1926; University of Illinois, 1927-28; University of Chicago, Ph. D., 1935. Held Ryan scholarship, University of Virginia, 1924-26, and Hearon fellowship, University of Chicago, 1931. Part-time assistant in history, University of Illinois, instructor at Vanderbilt University and at University of North Carolina, and associate professor at Randolph-Macon Woman's College, Lynchburg, Virginia.

MILDRED R. MELL (47), professor of sociology and academic dean, Shorter College, Rome, Georgia: appointed for sociological study at the University of North Carolina. Born 1890, Athens, Georgia. Education: Lucy Cobb Institute, 1905-07; University of Wisconsin, A. B., 1920; University of Georgia, M. A., 1925. Summer sessions at University of Wisconsin, Harvard University, and University of North Carolina. Member of Phi Beta Kappa. Instructor in mathematics and president of Lucy Cobb Institute, dean of women and professor of sociology, Shorter College, Rome, Georgia.

JAMES S. POPE (37), assistant managing editor, Atlanta Journal: appointed for study of the relationship of the press to political parties in England and on the continent. Born September 14, 1900. Married, three children. Education: Emory University, 1918-21. Associated with Atlanta Journal for twelve years.

GOODRICH C. WHITE (47), dean of the College of Arts and Sciences and of the Graduate School of Emory University: appointed for study of the development of higher education in the Netherlands. Born November 13, 1889, Griffin, Georgia. Married, two children. Education: Emory College, A. B., 1908; Columbia University, A. M., 1911; University of Chicago, Ph. D., 1927. Professor of English, Kentucky Wesleyan, 1911-13; professor of psychology and education, Wesleyan College, Macon, Georgia, 1913-14; professor of mental and moral science, Emory College, 1914-18; psychologist with the U. S. Army, 1918-1919; associate professor of psychology, Emory University, 1919-20, professor of psychology since 1920-, dean of the College of Arts and Sciences, 1923-, and dean of the Graduate School, 1929-. Member of Sigma Xi and Phi Beta Kappa.