Baltimore, Maryland Sociology

Plan of Work

626 North Carrollton Ave

Graduate study at the University of Pennsylvania in residence for the academic term 1939-40; candidate for the Ph.D. degree; thesis to be completed in absentia (1940-41); and, final semester prior to granting of degree to be spent in residence. Ph.D. thesis: "The Negro Delinquent in Baltimore." It is anticipated that such a study will throw light not only on Negro youth in Baltimore, but also upon Negro youth in other urban centers. Moreover, it is anticipated that additional light will be thrown on problems of migration, racial segregation, and personality adjustment. Publication as a doctorate dissertation.

Two years (only one in residence). Not yet admitted.
