

NICHOLAS S. FALCONE

Labor discriminations representative
New York State War Council
New York City

Race Relations

Good man, but I see no special evidence of distinction.
Very poor colleges & high school record.
His plan to get on in A. S.
Franklin doesn't impress me as much as his proposed study (for the degree)
of treatment of minority groups in world wars I & II

Name Nicholas S. Falcone Field: Race Relations
 Labor discriminations representative, New York State War Council
 3260 Perry Avenue, Bronx 67, New York

Plan of Work

To compare conditions existing during World War I and World War II on the subject of the treatment of minority groups by labor, industry and government in employment opportunities, taking into account the social legislation enacted in the United States from 1917 to the time of the writing of my final report.

Requests grant for school year, 1945-46. Wishes to work toward M.A. at Fordham University under the supervision of Doctor Millar.

Personal Data Born New Rochelle, New York, April, 1908. Age: 37
 Married, one child. Draft Status: 2A

Undergraduate Work Fordham University, 1928-29.
 New York University, L.L.B., 1932.

Graduate Work New York University, L.L.M., 1932.

Special Study: Manhattan College, 1943-44.

Experience Investigator, Credit Clearing House (out of business), New York City, 1930-35, $1200 (part-time); investigator, Edris Service Corporation, 51 Madison Avenue, New York City, 1935-38, $2000 (part-time); labor discriminations representative, New York State War Council, Committee on Discrimination in Employment, 80 Centre Street, New York City, 1942- , $4000. Carried on general law practice from 1935 to December, 1942, at 79 Wall Street, New York City.

Accomplishments Initiated the research work on the Railway Mail Association, a case dealing with the rights of Negroes in labor unions; the case is now in the U. S. Supreme Court. Since June, 1944, has been engaged in research work on racial and religious discrimination existing in labor organizations within the State of New York.

References

Alvin Johnson, New School for Social Research, New York City
 Charles C. Berkley, Committee on Discrimination in Employment, New York City
 Abraham Goodman, State Labor Department, New York City
 James Corcoran, " " " " " "
 Godfrey Schmidt, attorney, New York City

Budget Summary

Total Amount Needed	$750
From Applicant	-
From Fund	$750

AMOUNT GRANTED

Sent to Committee

