

Lively, Robert Alexander

(1922)

White Southerner

Birmingham-Southern University, B. A., 1943

History

Called into Navy before beginning work. Grant not held.

1942 DS
1943

Name Robert Alexander Lively (Birmingham-Southern) Field: History
2522 Ensley Avenue Birmingham, Alabama In Navy SCHOLARSHIP-AID

Plan of Work

A study of the role of the Negro in southern society with history as a field of special concentration. Wishes to use this training to improve services as a southern newspaper man.

Wishes to attend the University of North Carolina for one year beginning in June, 1943, toward an M. A. degree. Tuition $200.

Supplementary funds from own savings and if necessary, assistance from parents.

Personal Data Born Birmingham, Alabama July, 1922. Age: 20
Draft: Class V-7
Inactive Duty, U.S. Naval Reserve

Undergraduate Work Birmingham-Southern College, 1939-1943.

Graduate Work Did not begin work under grant. Begins naval training at Columbia June 21, 1943

Experience Reporter, Birmingham News-Age-Herald, 1939-1943, Birmingham Post, summer, 1941, Birmingham-Southern College, 1939-43.

Accomplishments Two-year tuition grant, Birmingham-Southern College, 1939-41, won in competitive examinations sponsored by the local chapter of Phi Beta Kappa.

References

Dr. Cecil E. Abernethy, Assistant Professor of English
Dr. Henry T. Shanks, Professor of History
Dr. Walter B. Posey, Professor of History

Sent to Committee

Budget Summary

Total Amount Needed
From Applicant
From Fund

AMOUNT GRANTED

