

Name Charles Addison Hickman, Jr. Field: Economics
 Instructor in Business Administration
 John B. Stetson University, De Land, Florida

Plan of Work An analysis of the effects of post-war United States tariff policy upon the economic development of the South.

Wishes to attend State University of Iowa, working for Ph.D. under Dr. Paul R. Olson. Has been admitted. Probable duration of study twelve months, beginning September, 1940. Will probably return to present work.

Personal Data Born Sioux City, Iowa, June, 1916. Age: 24
 To be married this summer.

Undergraduate Work State University of Iowa, B. A., 1937.

Graduate Work State University of Iowa, M. A., 1938.
 Columbia University, summer of 1939.

Experience Graduate instructor, State University of Iowa, second semester, 1938, $250; instructor, John B. Stetson University, 1938 - , $1800-$2000.

not southern for very long

Accomplishments Phi Beta Kappa.

Master's thesis: an examination of the Chilean nitrate industry and the Chilean economy.

Publication: "Joining the Americas," Journal of Business, February, 1937.

Two tuition scholarships at State University of Iowa.

Has also applied for tuition scholarship at Iowa State.

References

- W. S. Allen, President, John B. Stetson University
- Charles Smith, Dean, John B. Stetson University
- Russel Larcom, Head, Business Administration Department, John B. Stetson University
- Chester Phillips, Dean, College of Commerce, Stetson University
- Paul R. Olson, Associate Professor, University of Iowa

Budget Summary

Total Amount Needed	$1800.00
From Applicant
From Fund	$1800.00

AMOUNT GRANTED

Plan of Work x Photograph x
 Transcripts x Exhibit Material
 State University of Iowa
 Columbia University

Sent to Committee

3/1 5

