

MARY RUTH ROGERS

Student, Florida State College for Women

National Institute Public Affairs

Practically straight A right through the college course Just to Verson and Ehrlich, the best of the junior candidates.
Has worked her way, while topping her class at Florida State.

Victoria Schuch gives mixed reference

If we were giving junior fellowships regularly, I'd bet for her without question. Even on our present basis we might well award #700 in her to try out the scheme of junior awards and to try out the utility of the National Institute of Public Affairs
