

Candidate Sara Grace Bradley ✓
 Instructor of English, Booker T. Washington H. S.
 Atlanta, Georgia.

Special Field English &
 Journalism

Plan of Work

To take a course in journalism as well as the courses in English leading to a degree of M.A. with particular emphasis upon the high school and college publications.

Wishes to work for M.A. at the University of Chicago, beginning summer, 1938, for the period of one year. Can return to present position.

Digest of Application

Born May, 1905, Athens, Georgia. Single.

A.B. from Morris Brown College, 1922. Attended Harvard University, 1923-24; University of Chicago, summer, 1925, 1926.

Head of English Department, Snow Hill Institute, Alabama, 1922-24, $3000. Teacher, Booker T. Washington High School, Atlanta, Georgia, 1924- , $260 and Increase.

Made a study of high school Journals. Summarized accomplishments of Negro in Field of Journalism and dramatic art. Frequent columnist contributor to Associated Negro Press. On staff of The Atlanta Daily World since its beginning.

Publications: The Brownie Book (First Annual published by Negro Colleges in Atlanta) Sponsored the only two annuals at Booker T. Washington High School. Editor of School Department of The Atlanta Daily World.

References

Mr. C. L. Harper, Principal, Booker T. Washington, H.S.	Total amount needed	$1000
Mr. H. Reid Hunter, Ass't. Supt. City Schools, Atlanta, Georgia	From applicant	_____
Mr. C. A. Scott, Editor, Atlanta World, Atlanta, Ga.	From Fund	$1000

Budget Summary

Committee Notes

Granted

Documents submitted
 Photograph x
 Exhibit material
 Transcripts x
 Morris Brown College
 Plan of work x

Digest Brief
 Sent to Committee
 Documents returned

