

FELLOWSHIPS

TENTATIVE AWARDS - MARCH 21-22, (1942)

Lists

WHITE SOUTHERNERS

AGRICULTURE

John Everett Mason - Bureau of Agricultural Economics, Little Rock $1,200

For a study of the "Cotton Acreage Adjustments in the Mississippi River Aluvial Valley and Adjacent Areas", at the University of Minnesota.

33 - married, 3-A in draft

ART

Lamar Baker - New York City (Atlanta, Georgia) 1,500

To do a group of prints, paintings and drawings on the Negro and life in the South.

33 - single, 1-B in draft

Esther Worden Day - Richmond School of Art 1,500

To do lithographs of southern scenes, and to study the silk-screen color process.

BIOLOGY

Marcelotte Leake - University of Oklahoma, Norman 1,500

For studies in botany and anthropology, with special attention to preparation in the field of ethnobotany, at Radcliffe College.

CREATIVE WRITING

Thomas Edward Bell - Murfreesboro, Tennessee 1,800

For a book in a popular vein dealing with the scientific rehabilitation of a 400-acre eroded and soil-impooverished farm in Tennessee.

33 - married, two dependents

Frank Eppse Goodwyn - University of Texas 1,800

For a study in novel form of Latin-American psychology on the Rio Grande border, the principal character to be a Mexican peon of South Texas. At the University of Texas.

31 - married, two children

Thomas Byrd Ham - Atlanta Journal, Atlanta, Georgia $1,500

To write a novel based on the people of Georgia's Blue Ridge Mountains, their origin, folklore, and development.

29 - married, two children

Stetson Kennedy - Florida Writers' Project 1,500

For a book-length documentary study of "The Four Freedoms Down South".

25 - married, not yet classified

Robert Ramsey - Memphis, Tennessee 1,500

For a novel dealing with tenancy in the South, from the point of view of a tenant farmer in Eastern Arkansas.

29 - married, one child

DRAMA

Roberta Powers Winter - Agnes Scott College, Decatur, Georgia 1,500

For a study of dramatic activity in the South from colonial days to the present time, at New York University.

ECONOMICS

Jesse William Markham - Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, Maryland 1,000

For a study of wage differences between the South and other regions in five manufacturing industries, at Johns Hopkins University.

26 - single, one dependent, 3-A in draft

EDUCATION

Otto Hollaway - Waterloo Schools, Waterloo, Alabama 1,800

For a study of the adjustment of the high school to pupil and community needs in the South, at George Peabody College.

38 - married, two children

Sam Schiller - Marion Institute, Marion, Alabama

$1,600

To translate into curriculum form for the public schools the principal research and discussion on the problem of planning for peace in the Southeastern states. At Teachers College, Columbia University.

33 - single. Physically unfit for draft?

William Daniel Varnell - University of Tennessee Experimental School
Norris, Tennessee

1,650

For studies leading to the development of an educational program which will meet the sociological and economic needs of southern communities, at Ohio State University.

38 - married, one dependent

ENGLISH LANGUAGE AND LITERATUREHerman Everette Spivey - University of Florida, Gainesville

2,000

For a study of significant collections of manuscripts, letters, diaries, rare editions, periodicals and other -iana pertaining to literary culture of the South, and available in the region.

34 - married, two children, two dependents

HISTORYEdward Peter Dreyer - Louisiana Writers' Project

1,500

For the research and writing of a biography of John McDonogh, merchant, landowner, slaveholder and philanthropist of New Orleans, 1779-1850.

32 - single, one partial dependent. Deferred in draft because of physical condition.

Harnett Thomas Kane - Reporter for New Orleans Item

1,800

For a reappraisal of Reconstruction in Louisiana, with emphasis on social-economic groupings and trends, and correlation with modern development.

31 - single, one partial dependent, 1-B in draft

Arthur Stanley Link - University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill $1,000

For an evaluation of the South's place in the New Freedom, its southern roots, the contribution of southern leaders, and the effect of the New Freedom upon the development of the South, at the University of North Carolina.

21 - single, possibly 1-A in draft

POLITICAL SCIENCE

John William Lipscomb - Nashville Tennessee 1,500

For a history of the poll tax, with special reference to its effect on the government of southern states and its relation to social problems.

27 - married, wife employed, 3-A in draft

SOCIOLOGY

Lewis Campbell Copeland - Fisk University, Nashville, Tennessee 2,000

For a study of racial attitudes and ideologies.

33 - married, one child

Morris Haimowitz - University of Florida, Gainesville 600

For a study of Florida population trends from 1830 to 1940, at the University of Chicago and the University of North Carolina.

24 - single, not yet classified

James Elmer Montgomery - Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tennessee 1,500

For studies leading to a test of the hypothesis that an increased exploitation of a community's resources, natural and human, may be as effective as resettlement or emigration in bringing about a balance between numbers and adequate sustenance, at Vanderbilt University and the University of Chicago.

28 - married, 3-A in draft

22 New Grants to White Southerners

TOTAL

$ 33,250

SUMMARY

To Negroes	$ 48,112
To White
Southerners	33,250
	$ 81,362