Dear Mister Reynolds:

I returned home yesterday after an absence of two months. In going through the mass of correspondence and accumulated papers in my brief case I am distressed to find your letter of September 25, requesting information concerning my activities since the completion of my fellowship. It was not forwarded to me. As soon as it did reach me in New York I filled it out immediately. However it did not get into the mail and must have gotten mixed up with some of my papers. About two days later your telegram came. I assumed by that time you had received my letter.

I am terribly sorry that this delay occurred and hope that it has not caused you much embarrassment.

With kindest personal regards,

Sincerely yours,

James Dombrowski

Dear Mr. Dombrowski: We are preparing a full report for the trustees on persons who have held fellowships and would like to have up-to-date information. It will be of great service to us if you will give the information called for below, and return the sheet to us at once. In addition to these bare facts we should be glad to know of anything interesting that has happened to you, or that you have accomplished either during your tenure of fellowship or since you have returned to your post. The trustees have a continuing interest in the Fellows and we like to keep them informed.

Very truly yours,
