An exceptional person we've given her two grants already (in 1941 and 1942-3) One more will push over the Ph D and make possible a book that Sterling Brown says is worth doing

She certainly hasn't had a brilliantly productive year (father's death, child's illness and divorce proceedings!) Maybe we should carry her another year. But I hate to establish the precedent of rewards except for splendid achievement
