

Candidate Cleopatra Davenport ✓

Special Field

Director, Department of Education, Okolona Industrial School, Okolona, Mississippi

Elementary Education

Plan of Work

During the writer's tenure of fellowship, September 1938 to June 1939, it is her plan to study such courses offered by the University of Iowa that will increase her knowledge of Curriculum Development or meet two definite needs of curriculum adaptation for rural schools - selection and organization of materials.

Wishes to work for Ph.D. Can return to present position.

2-3 yrs

Digest of Application

Born February, 1912, Gibson, Mississippi. Single.

B.S. from Alcorn A. & M. College, 1932. M. A. from Atlanta University, 1936.

Mathematics Instructor, Walthall County Training School, Lexie, Mississippi, 1932-33, $235. Teacher of Education, Okolona Industrial School, Mississippi, 1935, $690. Teacher of Rural Education, Alcorn A. & M. College, Mississippi, summer, 1937, $150.

Master's Thesis: A Comparative Statistical Treatment of the Scores of Two Groups of Elementary Pupils Divided on the Basis of Kindergarten Attendance.

Four Scholarships, Atlanta University, total stipend $214.50.

Applied 1937. Was not granted a fellowship.

References

Budget Summary

- ✓ Dr. P. H. Eason, State Agent, Jackson, Mississippi
- ✓ A. M. Strange, Principal, Okolona Ind. School
- ✓ Wm. H. Bell, President, Alcorn A. & M. College

Total amount needed	$725
From applicant	175
From Fund	$548

Committee Notes

Granted

(but)

young - references not good.

Documents submitted

- Photograph x
- Exhibit material
- Transcripts x
- Alcorn A. & M. College
- Atlanta University
- Plan of work
- x

Digest

Complete

Sent to Committee FEB 8 1938

Documents returned

