

Barbara Bond

(21)

Hampton Institute
Hampton, Virginia

Home Economics

Name Barbara Bond (Hampton Institute) Field: Home Economics
 Kennedy Hall SCHOLARSHIP AID
 Hampton Institute, Hampton, Virginia

Plan of Work

I want to further develop my skills, attitudes, and information in the area of Home Economics - in short, to more thoroughly comprehend the vast possibilities resident in Home Economics work.

Wishes to attend Cornell or Wisconsin for school year beginning September 1942 to work for Master's degree. Tuition approximately $197.

Supplementary funds from parents.

Personal Data Born Chicago, Illinois, May 1921. Age: 21

Undergraduate Work Bethune-Cookman College, 1938-40.
Hampton Institute, 1940-42.

Graduate Work

Experience Assisted in homemaking department at Bethune-Cookman College, summer 1941.

Accomplishments Tuition scholarships at Bethune-Cookman College and Hampton Institute.

A-24
B-25
C-11

References

- Dr. Flemmie P. Kittrell, Head of Home Economics Department, Dean of Women
- Miss Mary R. Kennedy, Home Economics Department
- Mrs. L. P. Williams, Home Economics Department

Sent to Committee

