

Name Clyde Winfield Wilkinson Field: English Language and Literature
 Assistant Professor of English
 Texas A. & M. College, College Station

Plan of Work

I plan to study the contribution of the Southwest to American literature, the study to be divided into three parts: (1) the Southwest as subject matter for writers from other sections; (2) the Southwest as depicted by its own writers; and (3) characteristic regional contributions and fusion with other cultures.

Wishes to attend University of Pennsylvania (and perhaps some time at University of Texas), working for Ph.D. degree. Has been admitted. Will work under Mr. A. H. Quinn. Study to begin June, 1940. Will return to present position.
