Miss Bessie W. Carney
502 Cotton State Building
Nashville, Tennessee

Dear Miss Carney:

The truck that was purchased for the Lamar County Training School at Lumberton has been standing under a good shed this winter, owing to the fact that the county superintendent of that county let the little school that was formerly transported to Lumberton have a teacher for this session, thus doing away with the need of transportation. It is probable that this same bus will be used again next session if we can get the new superintendent to take it up again.

I am informed that the busses used at Zion Hill school in Neshoba County heretofore are still being used to transport the children in that vicinity. The reason no application was filed for that school was because of the fact that the building burned, salaries have been reduced and the busses have been used to transport the children to other nearby schools.

I am,

Cordially yours,

(Signed) P. H. Eason

State Agent
