

Candidate Charles Maxwell Lancaster Special Field
2417 Vanderbilt Place
Associate Professor of Romance Languages Nashville Romance Languages
Howard College, Birmingham, Alabama

Plan of Work
To do research in contemporary Portuguese and Spanish Literature of South and Central America with the objective of finding and appraising the influence of the Negro and Indian races in literary works, written either by representatives of or about these races.

Seeks Ph. D. at Harvard University, working under Drs. J. D. M. Ford and Albert Franklin. Has not yet applied for admission. Twelve to fifteen months.

Digest of Application

Born April, 1911, York, Alabama. Married, one child.

A. B. Howard College, 1930. M. A. Indiana University, 1932. B. A. Honor Schools, Balliol College, Oxford, 1934. Johns Hopkins University, six weeks, 1935. Honorary M. A. Balliol College, Oxford, 1937.

Tuition scholarship, Howard College, 1927-29, $200 a year; Indiana University, fellowship in French, 1930-31, $1000; Rhodes Scholarship, Balliol College, Oxford, 1931-34, $2000 a year for three years.

Salesman, Montevallo Coal Mining Company, Birmingham, 1928-29, $50 a month; French instructor, Bloomington, Indiana, 1930-31, $1000 a year; Associate Professor, Howard College, 1934 - - - $1800-$2200.

*Visiting Prof. of Spanish
Vanderbilt 1939-*

See attached list of creative work.

References

- Dr. O. C. Carmichael, Chancellor, Vanderbilt University
- Dr. John M. Hill, Chairman, Spanish Dept. Indiana U.
- Dr. Bert Young, Head, French & Italian Department, Indiana University
- Dr. H. Carrington Lancaster, Chairman, Romance Language Dept., Johns Hopkins University
- Dr. A. D. Lindsey, Vice Chancellor, Oxford University

Budget Summary

Total amount needed	$3000
From applicant	500
From Fund	$2000

Committee Notes

Granted

Documents submitted

- Photograph
- Exhibit material
- Transcripts
 - Howard College
 - Indiana University
 - Johns Hopkins University
- Plan of work

Digest

Sent to Committee 7/16 2

Documents returned

