Narration

From The Blue Fairy Book, by Andrew Lang

What is one thing you remember about the passage?
