Brevard Tornadoes Football vs. Huntingdon College

Saturday, November 4, 2023, 1 PM
Brevard, N.C. (Ives-Lemel Family Field)

Senior Day

5-3, 5-0 USA South

6-2, 4-1 USA South

QUICK HITS

- 1 The Brevard College Tornadoes Football team is currently riding a five-game win streak, matching the program-record streak of five games that BC won in 2019 to close the season out, culminating with the ECAC Scotty Whitelaw Bowl victory.
- 2 With an unblemished 5-0 mark in conference play, the Tornadoes sit solo atop the leaderboard in the USA South Conference standings, currently half a game up on next week's opponent Belhaven and a full game over Huntingdon and NC Wesleyan. BC's number-one place in the standings marks the latest in a season that any Brevard College football team has ever sat unopposed in first place in a conference race.
- 3 Huntingdon, who leads the USA South all-time in Football Championships, has lost just three conference games in the last four-plus seasons of competition. One of those losses came here at Ives-Lemel Family Field on the campus of Brevard College during the Spring 2021 campaign, when the Tornadoes dropped the Hawks 27-3 in the first on-campus football game for Brevard since the late 1940's.
- 4 In last week's 30-20 road victory over LaGrange College, sophomore quarterback Ethan Beamish - playing in his first season at Brevard - set a new single-season program record for passing yards. Beamish, a Simpsonville, North Carolina native and transfer from Limestone, has racked up 2,176 yards.

TODAY'S MATCHUP

Huntingdon at Brevard

Series Record: Huntingdon leads 6-1

First Meeting: Huntingdon 38, Brevard 10 (9/30/2017, Brevard, NC)

Last Meeting: Huntingdon 38, Brevard 14 (10/15/2022, Montgomery, AL)

With everything to play in front of it, and a conference championship well in sight through the final two games of the season, the first-place Brevard College football team (5-3, 5-0 USA South) gears up for a USA South Conference showdown with perennial powerhouse Huntingdon College (6-2, 4-1 USAs) on Senior Day at Ives-Lemel Family Field.

The Tornadoes, who matched a program-record five-game win streak, are off to their best start to conference play in program history, and are sitting solo atop the conference standings into November for the first time ever, welcome the Hawks to town to kick off a pair of critical USA South matchups to end the season that will play a large part in determining who lifts the USA South trophy and receives an automatic bid into the NCAA DIII Tournament.

Brevard most recently defeated LaGrange College on the road, 30-20, following a bye-week from game competition.

Sophomore quarterback Ethan Beamish went 20-for-31 with a pair of touchdown passes and a career-high 315 yards, pushing the Tornado signal caller to the BC single-season passing yardage record in his first year with the program. Beamish has thrown for 2,176 yards through eight games this season, pushing him past previous record-holder O'Shay Carter (2,024 yards, 2017) for the single-season program lead.

Chancellor Lee-Parker toted the ball 14 times for 62 yards and Zackary Orr had a game-high eight catches for 92 yards, while Reggie Taylor II and Cooper Hogan caught touchdown passes. Junior placekicker Hugo Taylor made three field goals and Toby Naylor notched a team-best nine tackles. Robert Dorsey forced a fumble, and the secondary duo of Dylan James and Montrell Stinson each recorded an interception.

Following the contest, Taylor was selected as the USA South Special Teams Player of the Week for the third time this season following a perfect 3-for-3 effort on field goals and an unblemished 3-for-3 on PATs.

Huntingdon, who holds a 6-1 all-time series advantage over the Tornadoes, is coming off a bye week of its own. The Hawks were last in action in Greensboro, North Carolina, dismantling the Pride of Greensboro College by a final of 56-8.

Huntingdon, who leads the USA South all-time in Football Championships, has lost just three conference games in the last four-plus seasons of competition. One of those losses came here at Ives-Lemel Family Field during the Spring 2021 campaign, when the Tornadoes dropped the Hawks 27-3 in the first on-campus football game for Brevard since the late 1940's.
