FloCollege Invests in You

FloCollege is the premier destination for NCAA Division II and Division III sports, along with coverage of select Division I conferences and marquee events. Through nearly $75 million invested in our partners, production, and operations, we're committed to elevating the college sports experience for student-athletes, institutions, and fans alike. Today, FloCollege partners with 20+ conferences and is one of the nation's largest distributors of NCAA sports.

FAQ's

- 1) How many accounts do I have with the Family Plan? The Family Plan includes one account that allows up to three users to stream at the same time from three different locations.
- 2) Can I watch on multiple devices with any plan type? Yes. A FloCollege account can stream on up to 12 devices at the same time, as long as those devices are in the same household and connected to the same network. If you'd like to stream from different locations, the Family Plan allows up to three simultaneous streams across separate locations.
- 3) How do I get the .edu plan? Students with a valid .edu email address from a FloCollege partner school can access the student rate. Simply create your FloCollege account using your .edu email to qualify.
