Coach DICK BONACCI

CLEVELAND STATE WRESTLING COACH • 1962-98

A legend as an athlete and a coach, Dick Bonacci got his start at West High School in Cleveland, Ohio, where he never lost a single match during his high school career, posting a perfect 60-0 record while capturing three OHSAA State Wrestling Titles.

At the collegiate level, Bonacci was a three-time Mid-American Conference champion at the University of Toledo, while he also finished second at the 1955 National Greco-Roman Championships and fourth at the 1953 National AAU Championships.

When Bonacci arrived at Fenn College in 1962, he revived a wrestling program that had been dormant for almost 30 years. Through his hard work and determination, he guided the Fenn Foxes through the transformation to the Cleveland State Vikings and turned the wrestling team into the most successful program in the athletic department at the time.

While at Cleveland State, Bonacci posted a record of 296-177-9, with 25 winning seasons, including 17 consecutive winning campaigns from 1964-81. He helped CSU secure 92 individual NCAA Championship berths during his time with the Vikings - including 10 All-America honors - and beginning in 1965 he sent a wrestler to 34 consecutive NCAA Championships. In addition, he coached Matt Ghaffari - a two-time Greco-Roman Olympic Team member and 1996 Silver Medalist.
