CAL STATE FULLERTON GAME NOTES

NEGRETE IN FORM

Titans Friday night ace, Mikiah Negrete, has a 5-2 record and 1.74 ERA after eight starts this season. Negrete has allowed just 10 earned runs in 51.2 innings pitched while walking just six batters and striking out 54. The southpaw's six walks is the second fewest allowed in The Big West while his 1.05 walks per nine innings ranks 16th in the country. Negrete's 1.74 ERA ranks second in The Big West. The senior had a career night against Hawaii, throwing a complete game shutout while striking out a career-high 11 batters. Negrete was named Big West Pitcher of the Week and Perfect Game National Pitcher of the Week.

CONTRERAS HITTING STRIDE

Paul Contreras has been a tear at the plate over the last 19 games he's play. Since the last game against Xavier on Mar. 1, Contreras is hitting .476 with 18 runs and 18 RBI while adding seven home runs, surpassing his season total from all of last season. Contreras has a .568 on-base percentage with a .873 slugging percentage during that stretch. On the year, Contreras is hitting .378 with 20 runs and 19 RBI. His .378 average leads the Big West. In conference play, the junior is hitting .500 with a .593 on-base, .795 slugging and 1.388 OPS, all of which lead the conference.

DOUBLES MACHINE

Cameron Kim has been a doubles machine this season, hitting 15 on the year which leads the Big West and ranks tied for eighth in the nation. Kim had a career-high three doubles on Mar. 6 against Bakersfield. In his first year with the Titans, Kim is hitting .279 with 14 runs and 14 RBI. In Big West play, Kim has raised his batting average to .305 while scoring six runs and driving in six.

THE WRIGHT RELIEVER

Andrew Wright quickly solidified his role as a go-to closer for the Titans in 2025. Wright made 27 appearances and had a 3-2 record with 10 saves and a 2.40 ERA. Wright went into the final game of the season in the Big West Tournament with a 1.59 ERA. After recording three saves in three appearances last year against UC Davis, Wright was named NCAA Relief Pitcher of the Week. Wright's 10 saves a year ago was the most by a Titan in a season since Brett Conine recorded 10 in 2018. The Southpaw earned First Team All-Big West in 2025. Wright wasted no time picking up his first save of the 2026 season, doing so in game one of the season against CBU. Wright now has four saves on the year and a 2-2 record with a 2.37 ERA in 19 innings pitched.

FRESHMAN TO SENIOR AS TITANS

Eli Lopez and Max Ortega are two of 13 seniors who have been at Cal State Fullerton since their freshman year, spending all four years as Titans. Both Lopez and Ortega have been cornerstones of the program the last few years. In three years with the Titans, Lopez has played in 123 games while starting 115 of them. The Whittier native, has a .307 batting average over his career while totaling 75 runs and 48 RBI. In 2025, Lopez started 52 games while hitting .314 with 38 runs and 23 RBI. The senior, known for his strong play at second base, started the 2025 season in the outfield due to injuries and quickly made a highlight play against Stanford which got him on SportsCenters Top-10 plays.

Ortega, also with the Titans since 2023, has played 107 games over the last three seasons while starting 79 of them. 2025 was a breakout year for Ortega, batting .268 with 25 runs, 28 RBI and five home runs in 43 games played. The Stockton, Calif. native had his best series of the 2025 season against UC Santa Barbara (May 2-4). Ortega walked-off Friday night's game in the ninth inning with a solo home run to take game one of the series, 3-2. In game two with the Titans leading 5-0, Ortega hit his first career grand slam to blow the game open. Ortega recorded a career-high five RBI in the Titans 10-4 win over UCSB.

MAHONEY FINDING FOOTING

Freshman Bobby Mahoney has started find his groove on the mound after going through the learning curve early in the season. In his appearances against UCI and CSUN, Mahoney allowed just one hit in eight innings pitched while striking out 10 batters and walking just three. Mahoney pitched a career-high seven inning while striking out a career-high seven batters in his start against UC Riverside on April 3. On the year, Mahoney has a 2-2 record with a 3.90 ERA in 32.1 innings pitched. The freshman has recorded 27 strikeouts on the year while walking 12 batters.

MILLER A KEY BAT IN THE LINEUP

After getting just 24 at-bats in 14 games last year, Nick Miller has been a key part of the Titans lineup this season. The senior is second on the team with a .297 batting average while adding 17 runs and 18 RBI. In conference play, Miller has upped his batting average to .340 with a .411 on-base percentage. The Ventura native has 11 runs and a team-high 15 RBI in Big West play.

PITCHING STAFF HOLDS STRONG

Cal State Fullerton's pitching staff has been steady throughout the season, holding a 3.80 ERA through 31 games. The Titans 3.80 ERA ranks third in The Big West and 21st in the country. Fullerton's weekend rotation of Mikiah Negrete, Bobby Mahoney and Dylan Smith have a combined 2.59 ERA with 101 strikeouts and just 23 walks. Smith's five walks on the year is the best in The Big West while Negrete's six walks ranks second. Additionally, Negrete's 1.05 walks per nine innings ranks 16th in the nation while Smith's 1.25 walks per nine inning ranks tied for 20th in the country.

REPLACING OFFENSIVE PRODUCTION

The Titans will have to replace the top three leaders in batting average from the 2025 season in Maddox Latta, Carter Johnstone and Matthew Bardowell. Latta, who led the team with a .362 batting average, signed a free agent contract with the Toronto Blue Jays in the offseason. Latta added 27 RBI and a team-high 52 runs throughout the 25 season. Defensively, Latta was nothing short of spectacular at shortstop, being named Big West Defensive Player of the Year and a Brooks Wallace Award Semifinalist. Johnstone was named Big West Freshman of the Year and a Perfect Game Freshman All-American after batting .344 with 47 runs and 42 RBI. Johnstone transferred to Vanderbilt the 2025 season. Bardowell ranked third on the Titans with a .325 batting average while adding 42 runs and 53 RBI. Bardowell signed with the upstart independent baseball team, the Long Beach Regulators.

NEW FACES AT GOODWIN FIELD

The Titans welcome a total of 17 newcomers to the 2026 team with six of them being freshmen coming out of high school and 11 coming in as transfers. Eight of the 11 transfers are coming from four-year universities in Armando Briseno, Cameron Kim, Britton Beeson, Nick Santivanez, Masen Swan, Bren Wilkinson, Cade O'Hara and Brock Mayer. Ty Thomas, Joseph Jasso and Dylan Nieto transferred in from junior colleges. Coming to Fullerton from high school are Hunter Meyer, Esteban Olazaba, Brady Dobson, Bobby Mahoney, Devin Miller and Damian Casas.

Briseno comes to Cal State Fullerton after three years at Long Beach State where he played in 104 games with 90 starts. Over his three years at Long Beach, Briseno hit .276 with 50 runs and 59 RBI. Kim joins the Titans after two years at UCLA where he had 17 starts. D1 Baseball picked Kim as a breakout player to watch this season with Mike Rooney saying "this is a 6-foot-3, 205-pound with tools for days and there may not be a player in the Big West with more upside than him." Aside from the new faces on the field, Tony Schifano is a new addition to the coaching staff. Schifano joined the Titans coaching staff this past summer after spending the past 10 years at San Francisco State as the head coach.

BIG WEST PRESEASON POLL

After finishing in third place in The Big West last season, the Titans have been picked to finish tied for fourth with Hawaii in the preseason coaches' poll. UC Santa Barbara was picked to finish first with a total of 89 points. UC Irvine was picked to finish second with Cal Poly third.

TITANS IN THE BIG LEAGUES

The Titans have had 72 former players ascend to the major leagues since their first products, Dan Whitmer and Tim Wallach, got there in 1980. Nick Ramirez and Thomas Eshelman made their MLB debuts in 2019, becoming the 66th and 67th Titans, respectively, to make it to the show. Scott Hurst became the 69th player to make the MLB when he was called up by the St. Louis Cardinals on April 15, 2021. Justin Garza and Connor Seabold made their MLB debut in 2021 to get the program to 71 Titans in the show. Tanner Bibee became the 72nd player to make his MLB debut on April 26, 2023 with the Cleveland Guardians. Bibee went on to finish second in the 2023 AL Rookie of the Year race and made four playoff starts for Cleveland in 2024.

Since Dietrich began as a Division I coach in 2011.

Jason Dietrich was named head coach of the Cal State Fullerton baseball program on June 30, 2021.

Dietrich, the sixth head coach in the program's Division I history, comes to Cal State Fullerton after spending the last two seasons as the pitching coach at East Carolina where he helped lead the team to the NCAA Super Regionals this year.

Dietrich returned to the Titans program after serving as the pitching coach in 2013-16. He also had stints at UC Irvine (2008-12) and Oregon (2017-19) that resulted in eight NCAA Regionals and one College World Series appearance. During his 14 full seasons at the Division I level, which includes two as director of operations, Dietrich has worked under ABCA Hall of Fame Coach Mike Gillespie as well as George Horton and Rick Vanderhook.

In his four seasons as the pitching coach at Fullerton he led one of the premier pitching staffs in the country. He was a part of a group that won 160 games during a four-year span that included three Big West Championships, four NCAA Regionals, two Super Regionals and a College World Series appearance in 2015. The pitching staff ranked among the nation's best each of Dietrich's four seasons with the Titans.

Cal State Fullerton led college baseball in one of four major pitching categories nine times in Dietrich's four seasons. The Titans had the country's best ERA (2.22) in 2016, while leading the nation in strikeout-to-walk ratio three times (2013, 2014 and 2015), WHIP twice (2013 and 2016) and fewest walks per nine innings three times (2013, 2014 and 2015).

In his four seasons at CSF, Dietrich's pitching staff never finished with a team ERA higher than 2.89 or ranked lower than 11th in the country. In addition to the Titans' Division I leading 2.22 ERA in 2016, Dietrich's teams posted ERAs that ranked fourth in the country in 2013 (2.47), third in 2014 (2.24) and 11th in 2015 (2.89).

Dietrich's pitching staffs at Cal State Fullerton also ranked no lower than third in strikeouts-to-walk ratio during his four seasons, while also ranking no worse than sixth in WHIP and seventh in base on balls per nine innings.

During the 2020 campaign at East Carolina, where the Pirates posted a 13-4 record before the season was cut short due to the COVID-19 pandemic, his staff posted a 3.12 ERA allowing 54 runs in 17 contests. The Pirates stood among the national leaders (top 60) in shutouts (32nd/two), strikeout-to-walk ration (45th/2.85) and ERA (54th). Junior Alec Burleson earned First-Team All-America honors from Collegiate Baseball after posting a 2-1 record with a 4.24 ERA, while fellow classmate Jake Kuchmaner sported a 4-0 ledger with a miniscule 0.60 ERA. In all, 10 hurlers had an ERA of 1.00 or less and seven registered double-digit strikeouts.

In three seasons with the Ducks (2016-19), Dietrich mentored a pair of All-Americans, three First-Team All-Pac-12 members and six Major League Baseball draft selections, while leading a pitching staff that ranked among the national leaders in strikeout-to-walk ratio, strikeouts per nine innings, walks allowed per nine innings and WHIP from 2017-19.

Ryne Nelson, a junior in 2019, led the club and Pac-12 with 104 strikeouts (fourth nationally) in 65.0 innings. The second round selection by the Arizona Diamondbacks appeared in 23 games (four starts), posting a 3-4 record with four saves while walking just 41.

During the 2018 season, Kenyon Yovan claimed his second consecutive First-Team All-Pac-12 accolade after posting a 6-4 record with five saves and a 2.98 ERA. The right-hander, who started the season as the closer, struck out a team-best 98 batters in 84.2 innings.

In Dietrich's first season with the Ducks, two of Oregon's pitchers received All-America honors. David Peterson became the first player in the modern era of Ducks' baseball to be a consensus All-American. The eventual first-round draft pick of the New York Mets (20th overall) lowered his ERA from 3.63 to 2.51 and was named a semifinalist for the Dick Howser and Golden Spikes Award. Under the tutelage of Dietrich, he also improved his strikeout-to-walk ratio from 2.03 as a sophomore to 9.33 as a junior. Yovan claimed a pair of All-America honors, while also being named a Freshman-of-the-Year by Collegiate Baseball and a freshman All-American by five different organizations.

The Oregon pitching staff, as a whole, ranked in the top 12 in the country in three different categories in 2017. The Ducks stood second in the nation in strikeout-to-walk ratio (3.25), while ranking 10th in walks allowed per nine innings and 12th in shutouts (7).

Before coaching at Fullerton, Dietrich spent five seasons (2008-12) at UC Irvine where he was the pitching coach during the final two. During his five-year tenure, the Anteaters posted 202 wins and made four NCAA Regionals including a Super Regional appearance in 2008. His club was 17th nationally in both ERA and walks per nine innings in 2011, and were 36th in ERA and 11th in WHIP in 2012.

Dietrich began his coaching career as the pitching coach at Arcadia High School (1999-2001). He became a college pitching coach at Los Angeles City College in 2002 before moving to Irvine Valley College (2003-06) and Cal State Los Angeles (2007). He also spent time as a pitching coach for the Hyannis Mets (2004-05) of the Cape Cod Baseball League and Southern California Fire (2003) of the Western Wood Bat League.

Prior to coaching, he played one year with the New Jersey Jackals of the Northeast Baseball League (1998) and four in the Colorado Rockies organization (1994-98) after being selected in the 19th round of the 1994 MLB Draft out of Pepperdine earning West Coast Conference Honorable Mention accolades. During his professional career, Dietrich posted a 7-2 record with a 2.84 ERA with seven saves in 44 appearances.

From 1991-93, Dietrich played at Santa Ana Community College where he was a team captain, all-conference and all-state selection and helped his club to the California Community College Championship crown in 1993.

In just his second season with the Titans Dietrich ended a four-year postseason drought, leading Fullerton to its 41st NCAA Regionals appearance and first since 2018. Additionally, Dietrich led the Titans to a 32-24 record and 20-10 conference record the most wins since 2018 and most conferencce wins since 2013.

JOSH
BELOVSKY
13

Assistant Coach
5th Season
Cal State Fullerton, 2004

Josh Belovsky joined the baseball coaching staff in the summer of 2021.

"I would like to thank coach Dietrich and the whole Titan family for giving me this opportunity. Growing up in Orange County, Cal State Fullerton Baseball has always been a very special place in my eyes. I am honored and humbled to be a part of this historic program and I am excited in assisting coach Dietrich with his vision of getting the program back to prominence," Belovsky said. "I received my B.S. in Kinesiology from CSF and have scouted and signed many Titans. I know firsthand what kind of players and people this program produces. I cannot wait to get started and put on that Titan uniform. Go Titans!"

Belovsky joins the Titans after serving as the West Coast Regional Supervisor for the Milwaukee Brewers over the past six years.

"It's a great day to be a Titan! The Titans got better today with the hiring of Josh Belovsky as our assistant coach and recruiting coordinator. Josh has over 23 years of college coaching and professional scouting experience," Dietrich said. "He has built up a great reputation in the baseball community as a great evaluator of talent but also as a man of respect and integrity. He was very influential with the Milwaukee Brewers when they drafted former Titans Khris Davis, Eric Komatsu, Nick Ramirez, Joe Scott and Scott Serigstad. He is from Southern California and has scouted a lot of games in the stands at Goodwin Field but now we get to have him in our dugout. Let's welcome Josh, his wife Sara, his daughter Lili and his son Luke to the Titans family."

Belovsky, a graduate of Cal State Fullerton, started his professional scouting career with the Colorado Rockies organization as an associate scout before joining the Brewers in 2006 as the Southern California and Hawaii area scout. In 2016 he was named West Coast Regional Supervisor.

During his time as a scout on the West Coast, Belovsky has scouted, drafted and worked with several Titans. Eric Komatsu, Khris Davis, Nick Ramirez, Joe Scott and Scott Serigstad were all drafted by the Brewers while Belovsky was with the organization.

While with the Brewers, Belovsky also served as the head coach for the Area Code team, Underclass Area Code team and Brewers Elite Scout team. While serving as the manager he coached over 85 MLB players including all-stars Nolan Arenado, Christian Yelich, Gerritt Cole and Joc Pederson. He also coached several Titans such as Phil Bickford, Justin Garza, Scott Hurst, A.J. Kennedy, Carlos Lopez, Michael Lorenzen and Tyler Pill.

Belovsky got his coaching start at Cypress College in 2001 where he served as the pitching coach and recruiter. He then made his way to Orange Coast College where he was also the pitching coach and recruiting coordinator from 2002-2006 and was named the associate head coach in 2005.

The Southern California native started his collegiate baseball career at Cypress College before playing at Texas Tech and the University of Kansas. Belovsky went on to play four years of professional baseball including a stint in A and AA with the Boston Red Sox organization.

Tony SCHIFANO
11

Assistant Coach
1st Season
UC Davis, 1997

Tony Schifano joined the coaching staff in the summer of 2025.

Schifano came to Cal State Fullerton after serving as the head coach at San Francisco State for the past 10 seasons.

In his 10th season at the helm in 2025, Schifano led San Francisco State to a 33-23 record and advanced to regionals for a second straight season. They finished with a conference record of 25-15 to tie for second in the CCAA, the best conference finish in school history. SF State made it back into the CCAA Conference Championship game for a second year in a row.

In 2024, Schifano led the Gators to one of their best seasons in program history, compiling a 34-26 record and advancing to regionals for the first time since 1995. The 34 wins were the most in the CCAA era. SF State Baseball received votes in both the ABCA and NCBWA polls to end the season. The Gators finished the regular season fourth in the CCAA and played for their first CCAA Tournament title, forcing a winner take all game with eventual CCAA Champions Cal State Monterey Bay. Six Gators went on to earn All-CCAA honors.

Schifano led the Gators to a bounce back season in 2023, finishing 27-22 overall and ranked as high as fifth in both the NCBWA and NCAA West Region. Schifano coached ten players to All-CCAA honors, the most in school history.

In 2018, the Gators reached the CCAA Tournament for the first time in program history under Schifano and finished with the program's best conference record since 2004. Six Gators earned All-CCAA honors.

SF State made back-to-back CCAA Tournament appearances in 2019 after earning the most wins in a season since 2004. SF State was ranked No. 17 in the Collegiate Baseball Poll in addition to reaching No. 4 in the NCBWA West Region Poll and No. 5 in the NCAA West Region Poll.

In his first season, Schifano guided the 2016 team to a 23-25 overall record, the most wins by a Gators baseball team dating back to 2004. SF State also produced four All-CCAA selections that season and followed with three All-CCAA selections in 2017.

Prior to taking over the program at San Francisco State, Schifano was the recruiting coordinator at his alma mater, UC Davis, and was in charge of the Aggies' offense and outfield. Schifano assisted the Aggies' to a 30-26-1 overall record and a bid to the 2008 NCAA Division I Regionals, joining the program's 2008 squad as the only two teams to record 30 wins during the program's Division I era. The Aggies had seven All-Big West honorees including two First Team selections, the first All-Big West first team selections in the program's Division I history.

Before joining the staff at UC Davis, Coach Schifano, was the head assistant coach at Los Gatos High School in Los Gatos, California, from 2004-08. Los Gatos captured 90 wins over a four-year span, including the 2006 CCS Championship.

As a student-athlete, Schifano enjoyed a stellar collegiate career with the Aggies from 1994-97. During that time he was a three-time All-Northern California Athletic Conference first-team selection. He was a member of the 1995 team that won a regional championship and advanced to the NCAA Division II College World Series under legendary Aggies coach Phil Swimley. Schifano held the single season record for most chances without an error (103) and is in the top ten in several other offensive and defensive categories at UC Davis. In 2010, Schifano was inducted into the UC Davis Baseball Hall of Fame.

Schifano signed as an undrafted free agent with the Florida Marlins in 1997 and worked his way through the minor league system until making it to the Triple-A level with the Houston Astros in 2001. He also played professionally with the independent Central League and Northern League. In 2000, Schifano was a member of Team USA at the Panama Cup.

An Orange, Calif. native, Schifano earned his BA in Political Science and Minor in Sociology from UC Davis in 1997.

RYAN
Assistant Coach
3rd Season
Concordia Irvine, 2011

Day joined the coaching staff prior to the 2024 season as the assistant to baseball operations and moved into the full-time third assistant coach position prior to the 2025 season. He came to Cal State Fullerton after spending five years at Long Beach State. While at Long Beach, Ryan was the Director of Baseball Operations from 2018-2020, before transitioning into the Volunteer Assistant position in 2021.

In that position, Day was responsible for working with the catchers, as well as coordinating prospect and youth camps, coaching first base, and assisting with the hitters and the pitchers.

Day helped guide Connor Burns to being the back-to-back Big West Defensive Player of the Year (2022, 2023). The sophomore was the first winner of the award since 2017 and just third in program history. He was also named a finalist for the Rawlings/Gold Glove Award in back-to-back seasons (2022 & 2023), as well as being named to the Buster Posey Award watch list in 2023. Burns went on to be drafted in the fifth round by the Cincinnati Reds.

Ryan went to Long Beach State from his alma mater, Concordia University in Irvine, where he spent six seasons as a coach and worked alongside former Titans Alumni, Joe Turgeon and Matthew Fahey. He served as the pitching coach, the assistant recruiting coordinator, camp coordinator, and alumni coordinator. During his time with the Eagles, he spent two seasons coaching in the Northwoods League with the Mankato Moondogs, as the assistant coach and field manager.

Day played two seasons with the Eagles, as an Outfielder/Pitcher, before serving as the teams closer in his senior season en route to the program's first ever NAIA National Championship in 2011. The Eagles coaching staff that year included former Titan Alumni; Joe Turgeon, Matthew Fahey, & Mike Martinez. Prior to his time at Concordia, Day was a catcher and outfielder at Fullerton Junior College, under head coach Nick Fuscardo.

Throughout his coaching career, Day has helped mentor 30 players who have gone on to get drafted or sign professional baseball contracts. While at Concordia, Day was instrumental in the recruitment of the All-Time Homerun Leader Bailey Collins (35), and the single season saves leader Tyler Mark (24), who would go on to be drafted in the sixth round by the Arizona Diamondbacks. While at Long Beach, Day helped recruit 2021 Collegiate Baseball First Team All-American, Johnathan Lavallee, who would go on to be drafted by the Minnesota Twins in the 16th round.

Day grew up in Fullerton, Calif. and attended Fullerton High School. He earned his Bachelor's degree in Communications in 2011 at Concordia University Irvine, and went on to earn his Master's in Coaching & Athletic Administration from Concordia in 2014.
