From the President

Dear Evangel family,

If you speak to any student, faculty member, or alum of Evangel University, you will likely hear something about the “Evangel experience.” The truth is that our institution is more than a school where students come to be filled with knowledge; it is a training ground for each individual’s future vocational ministry. At EU, we provide an experience-driven environment to give young men and women the tools they need to prepare for their unique callings.

Our experiential learning model moves students from passive observers to active participants, and within this structure, Evangel’s faculty members serve as both drivers and sustainers. Traditionally, at mainstream universities, faculty members are primarily disseminators of knowledge, and students are passive recipients. The disengagement of students’ passion for real-world applications has often been a direct result of observing professionals teach theory without providing experiential learning opportunities or the sharing of their personal stories along the way.

EU professors provide opportunities for students to engage actively with knowledge every time their classes gather. EU has made the shift from merely being “providers of information” to fostering dynamic, active participation in the application of knowledge. As Christians, we know the journey of learning and discovery resides within each student and must be guided by the Holy Spirit, and only He knows the challenges and assignments that lie ahead for each one.

As you read through the pages of this magazine and review the successes we’ve celebrated over the last year, know that your prayers and support have played an important role. The university is focused on helping students keep pace with growing challenges and the integration of their intellectual, professional, and personal development. Here, learning is experiential, not just theoretical, and opportunity is around every corner and lies within every challenge they will face.

I pray that as you read this magazine, the Lord opens your eyes to the great work He is doing at Evangel University and invites you to discern where you may participate in the work of raising up the next generation.

May God bless you richly,

Mike Rakes

- ▶ Evangel was picked to finish fourth in the KCAC preseason poll.

HEAD COACH | 4TH SEASON | EVANGEL '05 & '08

BERT CAPEL

Head Coach Bert Capel enters his fourth season at the helm of the Valor Men's Basketball team in the 2024-25 season.

Capel has enjoyed success in his first three seasons, leading the team to a trio of national tournament appearances, the first time making it to the national tournament in three consecutive years since the six year postseason run from 2009-15.

Last season, Capel led the Valor to their farthest finish since the 2002 national championship season, helping push the Valor to an Elite Eight finish where they fell to the number-one overall seed, Grace, by a slim margin, after a cinderella run as a 15-seed.

A member of Evangel's 2002 NAIA National Championship team during his standout playing career, Capel became the eighth head coach in the 64-year history of the EU men's basketball program after being selected to replace Hall of Famer Steve Jenkins, who announced his retirement at the conclusion of the 2020-21 season after 39 years at the helm.

Capel brings a wealth of coaching experience from multiple levels to the Evangel staff, including a total of six seasons spanning two separate stints on Jenkins' bench. Prior to his return to EU in 2019, Capel spent nine seasons at the NCAA Division I level on the coaching staffs at Florida State and Stetson, in addition to one year as an assistant coach at the junior college level with Jacksonville College.

Over the last two seasons, Capel has played a pivotal role in elevating Evangel's on-court success, including helping EU post a 10-win turnaround in 2019-20, marking its best single-season win improvement in 14 years. Evangel also earned its first postseason berth in five years in 2020, before garnering votes in the NAIA's Top 25 poll for the first time since 2015 this past season.

Prior to returning to Springfield, Capel spent six seasons as a full-time Division I assistant at Stetson, where he helped lead the Hatters to improved win totals in four of his first five seasons, as well as their first Atlantic Sun Conference Championship game appearance in 2016. He also helped coordinate Stetson's recruiting efforts, pre-and-postseason individual workouts and conditioning programs and managed the Hatters' summer camps.

Capel made the move to Stetson after serving as an assistant coach at Jacksonville (Texas) College for the 2012-13 season. Prior to joining the Jaguars staff, Capel was a graduate assistant (2009-11) and the recruiting assistant (2011-12) at Florida State for a total of three seasons. During his time at FSU, he was a part of the school's first ACC Tournament championship and three-consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances, including a trip to the Sweet 16 in 2011.

Capel began his coaching career at Evangel in 2005, joining Jenkins' staff as an assistant. EU posted four-straight 20-win seasons, appeared regularly in the NAIA Top 25 poll and made two NAIA National Tournament trips, including a Sweet 16 appearance in 2008.

As a player for EU from 2000-04, Capel helped usher in perhaps the most successful periods in program history as part of a banner career that saw the Kentucky native earn All-Heart Conference honors. In all, he scored 1,060 points and grabbed 456 rebounds to help EU claim two regular-season Heart titles. Most notably, he was a member of Evangel's 2002 national championship team that finished 35-1 and was consistently the NAIA's top-ranked squad throughout the season.

A graduate of Heritage Academy in Florence, Ky., Capel was inducted into the Northern Kentucky Sports Hall of Fame in 2012 for his accomplishments in both basketball and baseball. He earned his Bachelor of Science from Evangel in 2005, a Master of Arts at Evangel in 2008, and a Master of Science from Florida State in 2011.

Capel and his wife, Stacy—a former Evangel volleyball student-athlete and a 2005 EU alumna—are the parents of two daughters, Myla and Kinzli, and one son, Dru.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH | 4TH SEASON

JACKSON CAPEL

Jackson Capel, the younger brother of the Evangel head coach, returned to his alma mater where he was a three-time NAIA All-American and remains the program's all-time leading scorer (2,337). A four-time All-Heart of America Athletic Conference selection, he still holds several Evangel records, including most three-pointers in a game, single-season, and career.

After earning his degree from EU, he played professionally for nine seasons in Spain, Germany, and Switzerland. He was part of a championship team in the Spanish LEB Gold League during the 2016-17 season and was named to Eurobasket.com all-league teams in Germany and Switzerland.

Most recently, he served as an assistant coach at NCAA Division II member Palm Beach Atlantic University during an abbreviated 2020-21 season.

Before heading to PBA, Capel spent two seasons as an assistant at Indiana University-East, where the Red Wolves went 23-10 and 26-9 with back-to-back trips to the NAIA National Tournament.

Prior to his time at IU-East, he coached one season at Cincinnati Christian in the River States Conference.

Capel has also been inducted into the Evangel Hall of Fame (2020) and the Northern Kentucky Sports Hall of Fame (2019).

He graduated from Evangel in 2009 with a degree in business management and earned his master's degree from the University of the Cumberland in 2020.

Newly named Evangel men's basketball coach Bert Capel wasted little time in selecting the first member of his coaching staff, announcing the addition of Jackson Capel as assistant coach.

"I'm excited that Jackson will be joining our staff, working alongside me to continue the tradition of excellence here at Evangel," Bert Capel said. "He's already had a significant impact on this program as a player, and I look forward to having him share his passion for EU with our student-athletes."

The Kansas Collegiate Athletic Conference, commonly called “The Kansas Conference,” is a prominent intercollegiate athletics conference comprised of ten outstanding independent or private institutions of higher education in the state.

The origins of the KCAC are traced to February 15, 1890, when the Kansas Intercollegiate Athletic Association became the result of the first successful attempt at organization among Kansas colleges, “to promote and regulate amateur intercollegiate athletics.”

At that time the association or conference included not only private universities and colleges but also Kansas Agriculture College (now KSU), Kansas University, and Washburn University. Football seems to have been the major sponsored sport, and Baker University won the championship for the first three or four years.

In about 1902 this early association became allied with the Kansas College Athletic Conference, a group which was the first to adopt a definite set of rules and regulations. It also promoted an annual track and field meet which has continued yearly since, except for World War years. Basketball has been sponsored since 1904. Football was revived in 1907. Tennis began as early as 1912. Golf was added in 1923. By this time the name of the conference had been altered to the Kansas Collegiate Athletic Conference; it had grown to 17 college members and two allied members: Baker, Bethany, Bethel, College of Emporia, Fairmount (now WSU), Friends, Kansas Wesleyan, KSTC of Emporia (now ESU), KSTC of Hays (now FHSU), KSTC of Pittsburg (now PSU), McPherson, Ottawa, St. Benedict’s (now Benedictine), St. Mary’s, Sterling (formerly Cooper), Southwestern, and Washburn, and with St. John’s and Kansas City University (Kansas) as allied members. Kansas University and Kansas Aggies had dropped out earlier to join other conferences. In 1923 the College of Emporia, KSTC of Emporia, KSTC of Hays, KSTC of Pittsburg, Wichita (formerly Fairmount), Southwestern, and Washburn withdrew to form the Central Conference.

The present legal entity comes from a reorganization of the conference when the predecessor Kansas Intercollegiate Athletic Conference formally disbanded on December 1, 1928, and a new conference was formed which again was called the Kansas College Athletic Conference. The members were Baker, Bethany, Kansas Wesleyan, McPherson, Ottawa, and St. Mary’s colleges. At that time sportswriters quickly gave the KCAC league a nickname: the “Little Six,” in contrast to the Big Six (which became Big Eight, now Big 12) which also was organized in 1928. St. Mary’s College was discontinued in 1931. The College of Emporia returned to the fold in 1933, and Bethel was readmitted in 1939. Friends, a former member of the KIAC, was admitted in 1953. Sterling and Southwestern were approved for membership in 1958. In 1968 Tabor College and St. Mary of the Plains College were admitted to make twelve members in the conference, and the conference was organized into Southern and Northern divisions until 1970 -- when Baker, College of Emporia, and Ottawa withdrew to join two separate Missouri-based conferences. In the mid-1970s the formal name was changed again to Kansas Collegiate Athletic Conference. In 1975 women’s intercollegiate athletics were incorporated into programs of the KCAC. Ottawa was readmitted in 1981, bringing the conference membership to 10. In 1992 St. Mary of the Plains College in Dodge City left the conference and eventually closed. In 1999 Saint Mary College-Leavenworth joined to return the KCAC membership to 10 institutions. The conference increased to 12 institutions when it added Oklahoma Wesleyan University and York College to the lineup.

The KCAC is an affiliated conference of the National Association of intercollegiate Athletics with headquarters in Kansas City, Missouri. Today the KCAC sponsors conference intercollegiate athletics in football, volleyball, men’s cross country, women’s cross country, men’s soccer, women’s soccer, men’s basketball, women’s basketball, men’s indoor track and field, women’s indoor track and field, men’s outdoor track and field, women’s outdoor track and field, baseball, softball, men’s golf, women’s tennis, and men’s tennis.

2023-24 HIGHLIGHTS

EVANGEL ATHLETICS CELEBRATES UNPRECEDENTED SUCCESS THIS YEAR

The 2023-24 season was a banner year for Evangel Athletics! The Valor stampeded into the Kansas Collegiate Athletic Conference (KCAC), taking the competition by storm. Read on for some of this season's greatest wins!

Playing to Win

Valor Athletics made a splash during the first full year in the KCAC, with multiple teams qualifying for postseason conference tournaments! Valor Football, Men's Basketball, Softball, Cross Country, and Indoor and Outdoor Track & Field all qualified for NAIA National Tournament appearances, with Men's Basketball achieving a Cinderella-story run all the way to the Elite Eight, the team's furthest finish since the 2002 national championship season.

Competing for Christ

In the middle of a historic undefeated regular season, Valor Football saw 40 players and three staff members baptized in water after a fall practice. This event led to a renewed desire for baptism across EU's campus that resulted in a special chapel service and a total of 69 baptisms in the Valor community.

Top Honors

Valor Athletics received several major recognitions in the 2023-24 season, with four Conference Coach of the Year honors, including Chuck Hepola (football), Jay Halbrook (softball), Brandon Staley (track and field), and Joshua Saak (track and field). Three athletes earned Player of the Year awards, including Maddy Meierer (softball), Dillon Hester (football), and Bradley Myers (football). Track and field athletes Joshua Blakely and Koby Graham and football athletes Dillon Hester, Bradley Myers, and CJ Anoa'i were all named NAIA All-Americans.

University Mission, Vision, and Core Values

OUR MISSION

Evangel University is a comprehensive Christian university committed to excellence in educating and equipping students to become Spirit-empowered servants of God who impact the Church and society globally.

The Assemblies of God Theological Seminary shapes servant-leaders with knowledge, skill, and passion to revitalize the Church and evangelize the world in the power of the Spirit.

OUR VISION

EU's vision is to be identified among the most respected Christ-centered universities and as a premier Assemblies of God institution of higher learning.

OUR CORE VALUES

TRUTH – the pursuit and understanding of God's truth drives our academic, spiritual, and institutional identities.

INTEGRITY – as members of a Christian community, we are committed to living lives of Christ-like virtue and valor as the Holy Spirit transforms us daily.

SERVICE – we recognize and answer Jesus' call to selflessly love and serve our neighbors on our campus, in our city, and across the world.

COMMUNITY – because isolation is not a reality of the Spirit-led life, we provide opportunities for students to share fellowship with each other in every aspect of their experience.

CORE STRATEGIES

EMPOWER ongoing discovery and development of vocational calling.

CULTIVATE a Pentecostal community of scholars, learners, and professionals.

NURTURE rigorous academic inquiry within a Christian worldview.
