Bay Area Venues

--Toso/Leavey was built in 1975 (Siefert Gym, opened in 1924) but the Broncos and Spartans played primarily at the San Jose Civic. Smaller games used Siefert.

--San Jose Civic was built in 1936. SJSU played there from 1961 to 1975 and again after 1979. The Event Center opened in 1989.

--Saint Mary's was in Oakland until 1927, moving its campus to Moraga, but essentially played in the City through WWII... McKee did open until 1978, as the SMC-SCU series was regularly at Richmond Auditorium, the San Jose Civic and other local venues.. Used Madigan Gym once playing in Moraga.

--Kezar and the Civic in the City were popular venues to play for local teams into the 1950s. USF's War Memorial opened in 1958 and the Dons played at Kezar, as well as Dreamland and Winterland venues in the City.

--The Oakland Auditorium was used in the 1950s.

--Stanford Pavilion was built in 1922 until Maples came along in 1969.

-- Cal was the Men's Gym until it was renamed Harmon in 1959.

--Local teams also played the Oakland Coliseum (opened in 1968), the Cow Palace (starting in the 1960s) and the San Jose Arena (early 1990s).

--Pacific was in San Jose until 1923, before moving to Stockton.

The "First Game"

Pacific Pharos (1904-05, Page 21): Santa Clara 10, University of the Pacific 12. That was the result of the first game with Santa Clara College. It was a clean, snappy game and when time was called the score stood 10 to 10, but only a few seconds after play had started again, "Napoleon" Smith threw a pretty basket from the field, and thus won the game for us.

An Outdoor Basketball Court?

1905-06 Redwood Yearbook: "A handsome new basketball court is being erected on the football field in front of the bleachers."

1906-07 Redwood Yearbook: "The basket ballgrounds on the S. A. A. field have been improved and leveled so that now it is as fast a ground as any in the vicinity. Being composed of sandy soil it never becomes muddy and it dries up very rapidly."

Opening of Seifert Gym (1924)

The $60,000 George Seifert Gym open with the Olympic Club on January 29, 1924 (an 18-17 loss)

6000 Pack Kezar in 1930

On January 25, 1930 a crowd of 6,000 at Kezar saw SCU defeating then St. Ignatius (USF) winning 27-17

San Jose Civic Opens (1936)

The $750K Civic Auditorium opens in San Jose in July 1936. Opened with a boxing match on July 14, 1936. The capacity was 2500 for basketball, which SCU and Cal achieved on Dec. 16, 1938. Saint Mary's defeated Santa Clara in the Northern California Intercollegiate Conference championship game in San Francisco 39-32 at the City's own Civic Auditorium.

First-Ever Roadtrip to the Midwest (1938-39)

Five-game trip to the Midwest was first time team had "invaded" that part of the country. The Broncos visit Detroit-Mercy, Hamline, Marquette, DePaul and Loyola (Chicago), going 2-3.

Governor Watches Broncos (1940)

On Feb. 10, 1940, SCU defeated Cal at the San Jose Civic before California Governor Culbert Olson. Future Governor Gavin Newsom (born 17 years later) graduated from SCU in 1989.

Cow Palace the Place to Be (1948-49)

10,994 saw USF defeat Santa Clara at the Cow Palace on January 3, 1949. The Cow Palace had 109,960 fans for 22 dates (4,398) versus 63,271 for 10 doubleheaders the year before (Examiner, 2/13/1949)

Broncos Help Open MacArthur Court in Eugene (1954)

Ken Sears opened up the season with 30 points on December 3, 1954 before 8,600 at the remodeled Macarthur Court in Eugene in a 58-48 win at Oregon.

Epic Matchup at the Cow Palace (1955)

In the opener of doubleheader prior to USF-Stanford (with Bill Russell), Santa Clara beat Cal in overtime at the Cow Palace on January 28. The announced crowd for both games was 13,824. The game between Stanford-Santa Clara was broadcast on KGO-TV at 8:30 p.m. on January 29, 1955. 9,838 showed up for the second game and 23,662 in total.

Ken Sears edged out Bill Russell in NCBA Writers and Broadcasters Association Player "All Northern California team") of the Year honors on March 1. Sears had 14 votes, Russell had 13 votes. He was the MVP last year as well. Sears was a unanimous selection on the first team. Danny Ball and Gary Gatzert were honorable mention.

Charity Stripe Streak (1955)

On Feb. 28, 1955 Sears hit for 40 points at Saint Mary's. He also made 16 consecutive free throws (old mark was 14 by Carroll Williams of SJSU and future SCU coach)

SCU's Brush with History (1956, 1957)

Santa Clara fell to Loyola at Chicago Stadium on December 15, 1956 as part of a doubleheader with the Dons, who lost to the U.S. Olympic Basketball team 83-52 in the nightcap before 10,915 fans. USF was on a current 61-game win collegiate streak. SCU ended the Dons' 31 consecutive CBA victories on January 8, 1957 with a 51-47 at the San Jose Civic.

Experimental Rules - Shot Clock (1958)

Using an experimental 30 second shot clock in Bakersfield on January 31, 1958, UCLA ran away with it 77-56 win over SCU. The longest anyone went without shooting was 26 seconds. The NBA implemented a shot clock in 1954. The NCAA men introduced a 45-second shot clock for the 1985-86 season and 30 seconds in 2015-16.

"No Classes" if You Go Home (1959)

Following SCU's 67-66 win at the San Jose Civic over conference champion Saint Mary's on March 3, 1959, a postgame celebration and riot ensued amongst the 3000 fans. It was the Gaels (11-1) only defeat of the WCAC season. Several police cars and a paddy wagon were called. After two hours the "shouting, jostling, and hooting mob" responded to pleas from "Santa Clara disciplinarian" Rev. James Sweeter. He promised no classes tomorrow if they dispersed. They did.

Future Hall of Famer (1959)

Future Hall of Fame Coach Lenny Wilkens led Providence to a 62-60 win over SCU with 17 points in December 1959.

New Bronco Home (1970s)

A $3M fundraising campaign beings for a new "athletic field house". Siefert was built in 1923 and accommodates 300. In 1973-74 the cost rose to $3.75M with an expected opening of 1974. Final cost was $4.6M.

On October 23, 1975 the $4.6M Thomas Leavey Activities Center and Toso Pavilion opened for practice with 17 players and Head Coach Carroll Williams. Home opener to the 5000-seat arena was against Stanford on December 1. SCU beat Stanford 70-67.

"Toso Pavilion is lighted with mercury vapor lamps which offer an even disbursement of light that provides good natural light" - 1976-77 press book

Toso had the world's third largest air supported roof, following Pontiac Stadium in Michigan and Northern Iowa's facility.

310 by 210 foot roof of translucent teflon-coated fiber glass held in place with four giant air fans for continuous air pressur. Crisscrossing the roof were six steel cables
