Season Notes

- The Broncos will compete at the Pacific Collegiate Invitational this Friday (9/29).
- At the Roy Griak Invitational, Santa Clara secured a total of 148 points, and it was Nicholas Russell (11th place, 24:29.3) who led their team.
- Newcomer, Paul Beaven, followed Russell with a 22nd-place finish (22:24:44.0).
- At the USF Invitational, the team finished with a score of 177 led by Dominic Baciocco (18, 25:05.5).
- Both Russell and Ian Twyman were named Preseason All-WCC.
- Santa Clara was picked to finish third in the WCC in a poll of the league's head coaches.
- Last season the Broncos came in fourth at the WCC Championships with Russell being named First Team All-WCC and Twyman named second.
- Russell came in eighth at the 2022 WCC Championships with a time 22:19.1 and Twyman finished 14th with a time of 29:31.8.
- Welcoming five freshman to this year's squad, giving the Broncos some fresh legs for competition.
- Santa Clara finished fourth at the WCC Championship last year.
- After the conference championship, head coach Felipe Montoro said, "I could not be prouder of our guys. We were only five points behind the 14th ranked team in the country".
- Proceeding the conference meet, Russell placed 13th in the NCAA West Regional. This was the highest in program history, beating his previous record of 26th the year prior.
- The Broncos finished ninth as a team at the NCAA West Regionals last year and are hoping for a similar finish this season.
