Tournament Notes

- After a successful couple of months on the trail, the Broncos will end their fall season with a trip to Tulsa to take part The Clerico, hosted by Oral Roberts University.
- The tournament will be played at the Oaks Country Club, which is set up as a par-70 at 6,950 yards.
- J.P. Odland will play the No. 1 position followed by Calder Overfelt, Alvaro Muller, Emil Nielsen and Matt Robles, who is fresh off a top-five finish.
- Thirteen teams will tee it up at the Clerico. In addition to the Broncos and host-Oral Roberts, UTEP, UTSA, Kansas City, Florida Gulf Coast, Duke, Louisiana, Northwestern, Missouri, Little Rock, New Mexico and Baylor will all compete. Additionally individuals from both Oklahoma and Oklahoma State will take part in the field.

Season Notes

- Santa Clara opened the season with a bang, capturing both the team and individual title at the Myrtle Beach Golf Trips Intercollegiate. The team turned a three-day total of 21-under 843 to capture the tournament championship.
- J.P. Odland won the first event of his young Bronco Career, and became the first Bronco individual since Nolan Forsman in 2021 to win medalist honors. He finished the event 9-under 67-71-69--207 and was part of a three-way tie for first place.
- The Broncos tied for fifth in their last outing at the Leadership and Golf Collegiate Championship. Freshman Matt Robles, playing as an individual, logged the first top-five finish of his career by tying for fifth at 3-under.
- Odland currently leads the team in scoring average at 70.17 and already has five rounds in the 60s for the fall.
- Odland made program history at the Alister MacKenzie Invitational, tying the program record of 15-under par (67-66-65--198) to finish in seventh.
- Jack Hayden also won medalist honors for the first time of his career with a 5-under 211 tally at the 2024 Otter Invitational where he played as an individual participant.
- In addition to Hayden, newcomers Tyler Gerace, Alvaro Muller, Emil Nielsen, Matt Robles and Kasper Verwers have each seen action already in the young season.
- Nielsen couldn't have asked for a much better debut, turning in an 8-under 208 to finish in fourth. at the Myrtle Beach Intercollegiate. Verwers also logged a top-20 finish in his first collegiate action, tying for 19th at 2-under 214.
- Nielsen is currently second on the team in scoring average at 71.58 strokes per round in three events.
- The Broncos are in the fourth year under the direction of head coach Andrew Larkin.
