Season Notes

- At the five slot, Alexie Epstein/Alexandra Urbina took the win against No. 19 Arizona, 21-19, 21-19. This proved to be their second win as a pair against a ranked opponent.
- Elena Radeff and Katie Kishton went 3-1 in San Luis Obispo, just short in the battle against #9 Cal Poly.
- Jordan Bennett and Sveva Munneke upset No. 18 Stetson taking it in a third set thriller 16-14. This was the first pair to win against a ranked opponent.
- Epstein and Urbina shortly followed with their upset against No. 13 FIU at the five pair. They took the win 21-18, 23-21, the second pair to beat a ranked opponent.
- The Broncos found the first win of the season, beating Sacramento State in a 3-2 dual. The winning pairs were the twos, threes, and fours.
- Radeff/Kishton secured their first win at the ones pair, beating CSU Bakersfield in a three set battle, 21-14, 17-21, and 15-13.
- Senior Gallegos and junior Epstein won their first match of the year as they took it 11-21, 30-28, 22-20 at the five pair against SMC.
- The Broncos are coming off the 2023 season where they placed third in the WCC tournament for the second straight year.
