Game Notes

• The No. 17 Santa Clara University men's water polo team hosts its annual Julian Fraser Memorial tournament from Friday to Sunday, involving 15 teams from across the country playing in 23 games at two different sites, SCU's Sullivan Aquatic Center and San Jose State's SRAC.

• The Broncos open the tournament with a West Coast Conference matchup versus No. 15 LMU, a team that has dominated the series over the past 20 years with 30 wins. LMU has won eight consecutive games in Santa Clara dating to 2010.

• Santa Clara has won five of the last six meetings with Brown, including beating the Bears, 13-12, at last year's Julian Fraser Memorial. The Broncos have won three of the last four meetings in Santa Clara.

• Harvard has won five straight and nine of 10 over the Broncos dating to 2015, but that was after Santa Clara won seven consecutive in the series from 2004-14.

Season Notes

• Santa Clara dropped two road WCC games last week, falling 13-8 at then-No. 14 California Baptist on Thursday before an 11-8 setback at No. 6 San Jose State on Saturday. Imme van der Schaaf scored five goals during the week with two multi-goal performances, added two assists, grabbed three steals and drew an exclusion. He scored a game-high three goals Thursday versus the Lancers, then scored two more goals Saturday at the Spartans and dished another assist for a three-point performance.

Season Notes

• Senior center Reese Jenican earned Santa Clara's third consecutive KAP7 WCC Player of the Week award on Oct. 7 after helping lead Santa Clara past No. 15 Pacific on Oct. 5 in their conference opener. Jenican delivered in the clutch Sunday, scoring a game-high four goals, including the decisive strike in the final minute. With the score tied 11-11 and only 54 seconds on the clock, he took an entry pass from Imme van der Schaaf at two meters, fought for position, turned, and fired home the go-ahead goal to put the Broncos ahead for good.

Jenican was the momentum builder all day for SCU. He scored twice in the fourth period alone — once to halt Pacific's 4-1 scoring run and once for the game-winner. He ended an eight-minute scoring drought in the second period with a strike that pushed Santa Clara ahead, 4-2. He also tallied a steal and drew an exclusion. Jenican drew three exclusions and had a steal Friday versus No. 14 UC Santa Barbara, giving him four goals, four drawn exclusions and two steals for the week.

• Santa Clara's WCC-opening win over Pacific on Oct. 5 was its first conference-play-opening win since 2021, when it beat Biola, 19-7, to open Western Water Polo Association competition. The Broncos were 0-2 in their first two WCC openers (beginning in 2023), though both of those games were decided in sudden victory overtime.

• Santa Clara swept the KAP7 WCC weekly awards on Sept. 30, with Riccardo De Simon earning his second consecutive Player of the Week accolade, and freshman Imme van der Schaaf collecting his first Newcomer of the Week recognition.

The two underclassmen were key in the No. 16 Broncos' narrow defeat at the hands of then-No. 9 UC Davis Saturday. De Simon was the team's leading scorer with four goals, and van der Schaaf added three. De Simon also drew four exclusions, swiped three steals and dished two assists for six total points. Van der Schaaf dished an assist along with his three scores for four points, swiped a steal and drew an exclusion.

• De Simon's first WCC Player of the Week award came on Sept. 23 after scoring 13 goals in four games on Sept. 19-21 at the prestigious Overnigh MPSF Invitational in Los Angeles. De Simon posted four multi-goal performances in four games, including a career-high six goals on Sept. 20 to beat Redlands. He scored three times on Sept. 19 in the tournament opener versus No. 5 Stanford, scored two against No. 17 UC Santa Barbara on Sept. 21 to help the Broncos beat the Gauchos for the first time in program history, and he scored two more on Sept. 20 versus No. 15 California Baptist.

The sophomore from Bologna, Italy, grabbed 11 steals and dished six assists over the three-day tournament. He was a perfect 10-for-10 in sprint victories during the weekend, and he also drew nine exclusions and recorded six field blocks.

• Senior center Reese Jenican was named to the 2025 Cutino Award Watch List on Sept. 25, the program's second selection in as many seasons following Zach Fales' inclusion in 2024. Jenican has appeared in 86 career games for the Broncos as a starting center, totaling 77 goals, 16 assists, 38 steals, and 127 drawn exclusions. This season, he's fourth on the team with 14 goals, and tied for the team lead with 22 drawn exclusions. He has also contributed four steals and three field blocks. He scored a season-high four goals in the Broncos' 23-13 win over Mount St. Mary's on Sept. 6 and has drawn a season-high four exclusions in three different games.

• Freshmen powered Santa Clara to its most goals in a game in at least 18 years on Opening Day at UC Merced on Aug. 29. Rookies Imme van der Schaaf, Ashton Brown, Beck Early, Jamie De Zwart and Weston Bancroft all shined in their collegiate debuts with multi-goal games, leading the Broncos to a dominating, 26-3, victory. Van der Schaaf led SCU with four goals, Brown scored three, while Early, De Zwart and redshirt freshman Weston Bancroft all scored two each.

• Santa Clara finished fifth in the West Coast Conference a year ago, posted its first over-.500 record in five years and nearly upset eventual WCC Tournament champion California Baptist in the first round of the tourney. The Broncos won 13 games last season and have won double-digit games in four consecutive years and six straight when not including the COVID-19-shortened 2020 season.

Season Notes

• Riccardo De Simon was named to the WCC Preseason Team on Aug. 22. De Simon quickly established himself last year as one of the WCC's top all-around players. He earned All-American Honorable Mention from the Association of Collegiate Water Polo Coaches, all-WCC Honorable Mention, and was named WCC Newcomer of the Week three times in his debut season. He also excelled in the classroom, earning ACWPC All-Academic "Superior" honors and a spot on the WCC Commissioner's Honor Roll with "Bronze" accolades.

• Santa Clara returns two of its top-three point scorers from a year ago in De Simon (77 total points) and Henry Engs (61 total points). De Simon was the Broncos' second-leading scorer with 51 goals, while Engs was No. 2 in assists with 36.

• The Broncos also return starting goalkeeper Harrison Labrosse, who totaled 363 saves across his first two seasons. He also brought 22 career steals and 20 games of 10 or more saves into 2025. Labrosse is already off to a hot start this season with three double-digit saves performances and 54 saves overall -- third in the WCC.

• Santa Clara head coach Keith Wilbur reached his 300th career men's water polo win last season thanks to a 14-12 win at No. 13 UC Davis on Sept. 27, 2024. He's earned all 300 of his wins at the helm of the Broncos' program. Wilbur is in his 24th season as head coach of the program and is the winningest coach in program history. He began his tenure at Santa Clara in the fall of 2002.

• The Broncos (13-10 in 2024) finished 2024 ranked 18th in the final ACWPC poll. Santa Clara has 13 matches scheduled in 2024 against teams ranked in the CWPA preseason top-20 poll, including showdowns against top-10 teams like its battle versus No. 4 Fordham on Sept. 7, two upcoming clashes versus Stanford (No. 5) on Friday and Nov. 5, and one against Long Beach State (No. 7) on Oct. 11. They'll also face San Jose State (No. 6) and Pacific (No. 10) in conference play.

• All seven members of the WCC received votes in the CWPA preseason national poll, with six of them earning placement in the poll. WCC Preseason Coaches' Poll favorite San Jose State was tabbed No. 10. Pepperdine was the highest-ranked WCC member at No. 7. Pacific landed at No. 9, California Baptist was No. 13, LMU was placed at No. 16, and the Broncos came in at No. 18. Air Force earned two votes in the CWPA poll.
