Meet Notes

- The Santa Clara University men's cross country team has a split squad day on Friday, running in the morning at the Sean Earl Lakefront Invitational in Chicago, hosted by Loyola Chicago, and in the evening at the Pacific Invitational in Lodi, Calif.
- Friday morning's Tom Cooney men's 8-kilometer championship race in Chicago features three nationally ranked teams: No. 24 Washington, No. 16 North Carolina, and No. 7 Wisconsin. Also in the race will be Power-4 programs Boston College, Florida State, Indiana, Louisville, Minnesota and NC State. West Coast neighbor Cal Poly is also there.
- The Broncos will also run at the Pacific Invitational at Micke Grove Golf Course in Lodi, the first time Pacific has run a men's team in its own meet since rebooting the program this year. It's SCU's second time racing in the Central Valley this season.

Season Notes

- Last time out on Sept. 13, Santa Clara earned its second top-five team finish in as many races this season, placing fifth at the Kim Duyst Twilight, hosted by Stanislaus State at River Oaks Golf Course.

Kyle Berg was the Broncos' top finisher Saturday, grabbing a 13th-place individual showing with a time of 24 minutes, 8.6 seconds over the 8-kilometer course. Freshman Zafer Courcelle finished close behind Berg in 19th place in 24:24.8.

- Santa Clara opened its season on Aug. 29 with three top-25 individual finishes at the 32nd annual USF Invitational en route to a fourth-place team showing at the Speedway Meadows in Golden Gate Park.

Inbaa Chennai led the Broncos individually, grabbing a top-10 finish with a 10th-place performance in 25 minutes, 3.6 seconds over the 8-kilometer course. Fellow underclassman Evan Charkut was among the top-15 in 13th place, running a time of 25:06.1. Senior Andrew Ho gave SCU three among the top-25 with a 22nd-place finish in 25:14.2.

2025 Santa Clara University MEN'S CROSS COUNTRY

Season Notes

• The Broncos return 22 student-athletes who competed in 2024-25, either during the fall cross country season or track in the winter/spring. The returners are led by Paul Beaven, who was the Broncos' top finisher at the 2024 NCAA Cross Country Division I West Regional in Colfax, Wash., placing 59th overall in 30:31.5 over the 10 km course.

• Santa Clara also welcomes seven newcomers in 2025-26 -- six freshmen and a junior college transfer. James Estrella is the veteran of the newcomer group after competing for two years at De Anza College. The San Jose, Calif., native was a California Community College Athletics Association Northern California champion in the 3,000-meter steeplechase and the 5,000 in May, and he helped lead the Lions to a Coast Conference title in cross country last fall.

• The six rookies on the roster this fall all hail from the Pacific Northwest and include: Will Carroll (Tacoma, Wash.), Zafer Courcelle (Portland, Ore.), Jacob McManus (Vancouver, Wash.), Connor Rickey (Issaquah, Wash.), Coen Strub (Portland, Ore.) and Jack Tobin (Boise, Idaho).

• The Broncos were picked fourth out of 10 teams in the preseason's West Coast Conference Preseason Poll, voted on by the conference's head coaches. Portland (six first-place votes), Washington State (3) and Gonzaga (1) were the three teams ahead of Santa Clara in the poll. SCU earned 53 points in the poll, one of only four teams to earn 50 or more vote points.
