2024-25 Team

- Santa Clara is led by head coach Niall Angus who is in his ninth season at the helm and assisted by Josh Page who is in his first season.
- The Broncos roster is comprised of nine players this fall with four returnees and five newcomers.
- The returnees are: junior Alexander Watanabe Eriksson, sophomores Tiago Boschmans, Luca Lemaitre and Lukas Maskow.
- This is the first fall season for Boschmans and Lemaitre who were mid-year enrollees last year.
- The newcomers are: transfer John Kim from Cal, freshmen Luca Bluett, Valentin Faure, Mahir Khurana and Payton Jim On.
- The Broncos lost five players - Sebastian Buxman, Guillaume Dalmasso, Arjun Honnappa, Christian Lerby and Matthew Rodriguez - to graduation who helped the team finish No. 59 in the final ITA rankings, the highest year-end ranking since 2014, with a 19-8 record last season. They advanced to the semifinal rounds at both the WCC tournament and the UTR Sports NIT Championship.
- The 19 win total in 2023-24 was the most since 2011-12. The Broncos were nationally ranked in 12 straight weeks reaching a high of No. 53, the highest since 2014-15, defeating four nationally ranked teams along the way. The last time the program has been ranked this many times in a season was the 2013-14 campaign when they were ranked 15 times.
- Buxman currently serves as a student assistant coach while he completes his Master of Science degree in computer science and engineering.

Match/Season Notes

Season

- Santa Clara plays a road match at Cal Poly on Saturday and returns home to face Idaho on Sunday.
- The Broncos evened their season record to 3-3 with a pair of home wins last weekend, defeating Grand Canyon 6-1 and sweeping Menlo College 7-0, dropping just one doubles and singles match each.
- Valentin Faure leads the team with three singles wins this spring.
- Faure also tops the team with three doubles victories along with his doubles partner Tiago Boschmans.
- Freshman Payton Jim On made his dual season debut last weekend, winning his singles match. Since the fall season, Jim On has won four straight singles matches.

2025 Preseason

- Santa Clara was picked to finish fourth in the 2025 West Coast Conference pre-season poll, as voted by the league's nine head coaches. The Broncos garnered 28 points, behind perennial national power houses San Diego (48 points including six first place votes), Pepperdine (44 points, two first place votes) as well as Pacific (36).

2024 Fall Season

- Santa Clara played in a total of four tournaments in the fall.
- The Broncos had a singles bracket winner in each of the first two fall tournaments. At the Aggie Fall Invitational, hosted by UC Davis, freshman Luca Bluett won the white flight singles title in his Bronco debut. At the UC Santa Barbara Invitational, Alexander Watanabe Eriksson won the B flight singles championship, returning to the campus where his collegiate career started before transferring to Santa Clara last season.
- Lukas Maskow led the team with seven singles victories.
- Tiago Boschmans finished the fall with five straight singles wins.
- Boschmans and Luca Lemaitre topped the team with six doubles victories.
