Game Notes

- Santa Clara continues its home stand this weekend with a three-game West Coast Conference clash against first-place Gonzaga, starting Friday.
- Gonzaga has won four straight against the Broncos after beating them four times last season. The Bulldogs swept the teams' regular season series in Spokane, Wash., then beat Santa Clara in the opening round of the WCC Tournament in Las Vegas.
- Gonzaga's current streak in the series mirrors a near-identical streak for the Broncos preceding it. Santa Clara swept Gonzaga in the 2023 regular season, then beat them in the WCC Tournament.
- Nine of the last 12 games between Gonzaga and Santa Clara have been decided by three runs or fewer (since 2021). That includes two last season and three of the four meetings in 2023.

Season Notes

- A flash of power put Santa Clara (13-16) ahead Tuesday night, but visiting Hawai'i's bullpen locked things down from there, with the Rainbow Warriors' offense scraped across two runs late to escape Stephen Schott Stadium with a 5-3 non-conference win.

The Broncos responded quickly after falling behind, 2-0, in the top of the third with a big, go-ahead, opposite-field, three-run home run from Dylan Joyce. Mateo Garcia and Niko Olson had drawn two leadoff walks to start the rally and help put the Broncos ahead, 3-2. The Broncos mounted another rally in the ninth, looking for their ninth comeback win of the year. Johnny Luetzow reached on a hit-by-pitch to bring the tying run to the plate, and Luke Devine sent a ball through the left side for a two-out single, bringing the winning run to bat. Hawai'i's closer Ethan Thomas buttoned things up after that, getting a strikeout to end the game and escape with the victory.

- Right-handed pitcher Max Bayles was named on April 3 to the Golden Spikes Award Midseason Watch List, the award presented annually to the nation's best amateur baseball player. Bayles has been a dominant force on the mound for the Broncos through the first eight weeks of the season. He's racked up 64 strikeouts in only 38 1/3 innings. That's good for a 15.03 strikeouts-per-nine-innings rate, ranked No. 5 in the country through Sunday. His 64 total strikeouts are ranked 16th in the nation and No. 1 in the WCC.

2025 Santa Clara University BRONCOS BASEBALL

Season Notes

- Thomas Ferroggiaro continued his offensive rise last week with hits in all four games, including tying a career high with three hits Saturday at Pepperdine. Ferroggiaro hit .400 for the week with two doubles, five RBIs, two walks and a run scored. He slugged .544 and had a .550 on-base percentage. Ferroggiaro set a new career high Saturday with four RBIs on the road at the Waves, as well as his three hits.
 - More than half of Santa Clara's wins in 2025 (8) have been of the "come-from-behind" variety. Each of the Broncos' first four victories were comeback wins after trailing at some point. The Broncos were "comeback kids" in 2024, earning half of their 26 wins (13) in come-from-behind fashion. Santa Clara erased 23 different deficits during the 2024 campaign at any given point in a game. It has already erased 13 different deficits in 2025 through Sunday.
 - Santa Clara is now 3-4 in WCC openers since head coach Rusty Filter's first season in 2018 (no WCC games were played in 2020). It has lost its last two openers after falling on March 21 versus San Francisco and dropping its 2024 opener versus Portland. The Broncos had previously won consecutive openers against San Francisco and Saint Mary's in 2022 and '23, respectively.
 - Koen Carston had a heck of a week for the Broncos on March 17-23, posting three multi-hit games, batting .667 and slugging .778 in three games. Carston reached base nine times with six hits and three hit-by-pitches, posting a .750 on-base percentage. He hit a double on March 23 versus San Francisco and had two RBIs during the week. He also played flawless defense behind the plate, posting a 1.000 fielding percentage in 28 total chances and throwing out a would-be base stealer.
 - Sophomore infielder Ben Cleary was named on Feb. 6 to the 2025 Preseason all-WCC team, as announced by the conference. Cleary will lead a veteran returning infield this season while moving over to shortstop after starting 49 games at second base as a true freshman in 2024. He was named to last season's WCC All-Freshman Team after batting .264 with eight doubles, a triple, 17 RBIs, 20 walks, four stolen bases and a .360 on-base percentage. He was an anchor in 2024 for the Broncos on defense, only committing three errors all season in 231 total chances (.987 fielding percentage) while helping turn a team-high 29 double plays.
 - Head Coach Rusty Filter, entering his eighth season at the helm, has guided the Santa Clara University baseball team back to a tradition of winning not seen in decades.
- Santa Clara's 26-26 record in 2024 marked the first time in 18 years it posted back-to-back .500-or-better seasons. The 26 wins gave the program three consecutive seasons of 24-or-more victories for the first time in 16 years. And Santa Clara's consecutive appearances in the West Coast Conference Tournament (2023, '24) marked the first time in 27 years it made the postseason in back-to-back seasons.
- Santa Clara traveled all the way to Austin, Texas, on March 7-9, for the first time in program history to face the then-No. 12-ranked Texas Longhorns. The Broncos were swept in the three-game series, though they were competitive throughout. Santa Clara brought the tying run to the plate in the ninth in Friday's opener, had three extra-base hits in Saturday's game two, and gave up five runs with two outs in the finale.
- What did the Broncos in were 26 total free passes issued by the pitching staff -- 22 walks and four hit-by-pitches. 11 of the free passes would come in to score over the three games, accounting for more than half of the Longhorns' 18 runs in the series
- After its trip to Austin, Santa Clara is now 9-13 playing in the state of Texas since 2010. That includes a 7-0 mark at two different tournaments -- the 2012 Bobcat Invitational (3-0 in San Marcos, Texas) and the 2014 Irish Baseball Classic in San Antonio (4-0).
 - Santa Clara had two players (Robert Hipwell, Blake Hammond) chosen in the 2024 MLB Draft. Hipwell (sixth round) marked the Broncos' second pick among the top-10 rounds in two years, following Skylar Hales' fourth-round selection in 2023.

Season Notes

- Sophomore relief pitcher Max Bayles made it 2 for 2 on Feb. 24, earning his second Rawlings WCC Pitcher of the Week award in as many weeks on the young season, this time for the week of Feb. 17-23 after leading the Broncos to another victory behind yet another career high in strikeouts.

Santa Clara came from behind and won in extra innings on Feb. 22 at UC Davis, but the win wouldn't have been possible if not for the herculean relief effort on the mound by Bayles. Bayles entered in the fifth inning and pitched through the 10th, earning his first victory of the season with 5 1/3 innings thrown – one out short of tying his career high. He allowed only one run on three hits, and most of all – he struck out a career-high 12, just six days after he struck out a then-career-high nine in his last outing versus CSUN (Feb. 16). Bayles retired 16 batters – 12 of them by strikeout.

- Bayles earned the season's first WCC Pitcher of the Week award on Feb. 17 for the week of Feb. 10-16 after helping the Broncos clinch a series victory. Bayles struck out a career-high nine in only 4 2/3 innings of work on Feb. 16, leading Santa Clara to a series-clinching, 8-3, win over CSUN. Bayles entered in the fourth inning and got stronger as he went along, retiring eight of the last nine he faced with five strikeouts. He only allowed one hit and one run to a lineup that had collected 21 hits and scored 15 runs in the series' first two games. The outing was only one inning short of his career long (5 2/3), typically serving as the Broncos' closer/end-of-game pitcher.

- Santa Clara sophomore right-handed pitcher Max Bayles was named on Feb. 12 to the 'Stopper of the Year' Award Watch List by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association.

The Stopper of the Year award is given to the top relief pitcher in the NCAA Division I Baseball. Bayles made an immediate impact for the Broncos as a freshman in 2024, earning a spot on the WCC all-Freshman Team. He posted a 3.40 ERA over 42 1/3 innings pitched, striking out 50 batters while limiting opponents to a .205 batting average. His dominant performances out of the bullpen also earned him WCC Freshman of the Week honors twice.

- The 2025 Broncos return 21 letterwinners from a year ago, including 2024 WCC All-Freshman Team honorees Max Bayles and Ben Cleary. The team also introduces 17 newcomers (nine freshmen, eight transfers) and welcomes back two redshirt freshmen.

- Santa Clara was among the nation's best in ERA (75th), defense (76th), and base stealing (78th, SBs per game) in 2024.
