Tournament Notes

- Santa Clara will tee things off on Sept. 9-10 with their first-ever appearances in the Palouse Collegiate, hosted by Washington State in Pullman, Wash.
- The Broncos are looking for their third win in a fall tournament in as many seasons. SCU won the 2023 White Sands Bahamas Invite and the season-opening 2024 Myrtle Beach Golf Trips Intercollegiate.
- SCU's lineup will consit of J.P. Odland in the No. 1 spot followed by Matt Robles, Calder Overfelt, Kevin Hollomon and Jack Hayden. Tucker Sweeney, Max Margolis and Tyler Gerace will also compete as individuals.
- The Palouse Collegiate features a 12-team field. In addition to SCU and Washington State, Colorado, Pacific, San Jose State, Idaho, SIUE, Seattle, Boise State, Oregon State, Fresno State and Eastern Washington will all compete.

Season Notes

- The Broncos are coming off one of their most successful seasons in program history. The team shattered the program season scoring record (283.72 strokes), had three All-WCC honorees (most since 2018) and qualfied for the NCAA Tournament for just the third time in program history.
- Other highlights from the historic 2024-25 season:
  - SCU placed fifth or better in eight of their 13 events.
  - The Broncos finished the regular season ranked 45th in the National Collegiate Golf Rankings - their best finish in program history.
  - SCU shattered the program's 54-hole record at the WCC Championship with a 26-under 838 to finish stroke play in third place. The advanced to match play for the first time in program history.
  - SCU turned in the third-best score-to-par performance in program history at the Alister Mackenzie Invitational, shooting 37-under 815.
- Santa Clara returns four of their top five scorers from a year ago - J.P. Odland (70.92), Matt Robles (71.52), Emil Nielsen (72.56) and Calder Overfelt (72.87).
- Odland had one of the finest individual seasons in program history in 2024-25. His 70.92 scoring average ranks fourth-best in program history, he became the first player in program history to win multiple events (he tied for medalist honors at both the Myrtle Beach Golf Trips Intercollegiate and The Goodwin), he tied the program record for rounds in the 60s (15) and the second-most rounds under par (20).
- Odland shot 15-under 198 at the Alister Mackenzie Invitational to tie Hayden Shieh for the lowest score-to-par in program history.
- Matt Robles also had a fantastic campaign as a freshman, finishing the year second on the team in scoring (71.52) and earning both All-WCC and WCC Freshman of the Year honors. He tied Odland for the team-lead with five top-10 finishes (tied for seventh-most in program history).
